ITE IN MVNDVM VNIVERSVM, ET PRÆDICATE EVANGELIVM OMNI CREATURE.

This report is titled the "Destiny and Decisions Forecast" because there is an element of the future that you cannot change; this is your destiny. But you also have choices and options available to you; these are your decisions.

This report predicts where the planets are in the current time period, when they will be forming aspects to your natal planets, what influences these aspects bring, and how long they will last--as far into the future as you wish to look. THIS is truly PREDICTIVE ASTROLOGY!

Our report goes beyond the limitations of most astrological forecast reports in two very important ways: (1) we go into a much more detailed interpretation for the heavier aspects that could have a greater impact on your life, and (2) we include some suggestions for you to consider regarding how you may deal with the influences. This should eliminate the need for further counseling in most cases.

Your forecast begins on the next page. If the time period for an interpretation is, for example, given as "July 1, 1999 (June 15, 1999 to July 15, 1999)", then it starts in mid-June, reaches greatest intensity around July 1, and ends in mid-July. The first date listed is the time when the influence has reached maximum strength.

An influence may last for as little as a week to as long as half a year or so.

To obtain maximum benefit from this report, we recommend a periodic study and review of the information as the time period unfolds--once a week, at least, and more often when there are significant things going on in your life. It is always good to keep a diary or a journal to get a sense of the timing of the transits and a history of how they affected your life.

Following is the data from your natal chart with which the transiting planets form aspects:

May 30, 2011 (May 29, 2011 to June 22, 2011) Ven 7th H.

TRANSITING VENUS IN THE SEVENTH HOUSE--Venus transiting in the houses influences how you express yourself socially, romantically, and artistically in the various areas of your life. In the seventh house it highlights popularity, social ability and the ability to deal with the public. Marriage and close personal relationships will be important to you now. You have great ability to express love, therefore you receive love in return. You may marry and prosper from marriage during this time.

May 30, 2011 (May 6, 2011 to July 20, 2011) Sat Sqr Sun

TRANSITING SATURN SQUARE NATAL SUN--This represents a time of critical developments. Challenges from the outside world may make it difficult for you to maintain your freedom of action in whatever you are trying to do. Your vitality is low, and you may feel discouraged. Patience and perseverance will carry you through until your energy level is up again, so it might be best not to struggle too hard against adversity at this time. Authority figures may be difficult, so be patient. This period is linked to seven years ago which was a time of new beginnings, and some of the things you started then are in crisis now. This is a period of testing to determine whether or not those projects are valid for you now. It may be confusing, but the ones not worth saving will fall by the wayside during this transit, and it is well that you cut your losses, if you can recognize them. The consequences will be crystal clear seven years from now when Saturn is in opposition to your natal Sun. The successful areas of your life will pay off then. Be patient and make this transit a trial, rather than a defeat.

TRANSITING MARS IN THE SEVENTH HOUSE--Mars transiting the houses influences the areas of life in which you express your actions and desires, and where you need to use energy and initiative in order to get results. Seventh house transits could encourage aggressive partnership activities or working with the public. You are likely to be attracted to people with the same nature, and strife can be part of your relationships. With energy and single-mindedness of purpose, you are able to achieve much through cooperative efforts during this transit. You will need to beware of serious disagreements and marital discord.

June 4, 2011 (May 3, 2011 to July 4, 2011) nep sqr sat

TRANSITING NEPTUNE SQUARE NATAL SATURN--This can be a confusing time as the confusing influences of Neptune square off against the disciplinary influences of Saturn--you just don't know what you need to fix. Maybe you don't need to FIX anything. Most of this confusion is within your own psyche and does not necessarily reflect the reality of where you are. You may have doubts and fears about the way you are handling your life and want to retreat from reality. Try to remember that these feelings are more ethereal than the physical reality actually is. Try to not make any serious decisions regarding job, career or financial position during this time. The true changes that are indicated here are changes in your spiritual vs. material priorities. Seek spiritual guidance and relax your anxieties by getting plenty of rest.

TRANSITING SUN IN THE EIGHTH HOUSE--When the Sun transits this house of your Natal chart, it influences the departments of life most strongly affected by the individual will and power potential. In this house, your interest will be directed toward the deeper mysteries of life, such as death, and the survival of consciousness after death. This will probably increase in intensity as you grow older. You are likely to work at self-improvement through the application of your strong will. Spiritual principles will be important to you, but they may not come easy. You need to transcend the material level of life. The Sun in this house may indicate inheritances and legacies. You are likely to deal much with taxes, insurance, and partners' or corporate finances. Watch out for trouble in litigation of these kinds of matters. Avoid the tendency to squander others resources.

TRANSITING MERCURY IN THE EIGHTH HOUSE--Transiting Mercury in the houses deals with the practical affairs that occupy your mind and shows what areas of activity will be influenced by your thoughts and communications. The eighth house transit provides interests in deeper phases of science and the occult. These interests could include spiritualism and communication with spirits of the dead. You love mystery and intrigue and will pursue secrets and discover the motivations behind human behavior. You like to get to the bottom of things. You can also plan in secret and formulate strategy behind the scenes. The whole subject of death is likely to hold a macabre fascination for you. Beware of plots for revenge, for you may have a tendency to hold grudges.

June 12, 2011 6 PM(June 11, 2011 to June 14, 2011) Mars Sxtil Merc

TRANSITING MARS SEXTILE NATAL MERCURY--This is an excellent transit for all kinds of mental work, especially for long-range planning. The aspect breeds self-confidence and can indicate a successful time in the general sense. Energy is high and you get things done. Others cooperate.

June 14, 2011 (June 2, 2011 to June 23, 2011) sat conj ura

TRANSITING SATURN CONJUNCT NATAL URANUS--This transit can bring negative moods which are quite upsetting. Your confidence and sense of well-being are low at this time. You may experience confusion, self-doubt, uncertainty, and the tendency to look at life from the worst possible point of view. It can make you uncertain about what is real in your life, and can cause free-floating anxiety. You should particularly watch your health at this time, and check out everything which does not seem right. It is extremely important to remember that this aspect makes things appear much worse than they really are. And, there is a positive side to the transit: if you are in tune with your inner needs and feel secure enough not to be led astray by illusion, this aspect can give you the ability to detach from the material universe. All can be sublimated into the spiritual.

June 14, 2011 5 PM(June 14, 2011 to June 15, 2011) Ven Sxtil MC

TRANSITING VENUS SEXTILE THE NATAL MIDHEAVEN--This transit makes you think about your relationships with others in positive ways. You are in an open and compromising mood. It is a good time for understanding those who are close to you. You will have a tendency to give more than to receive, and to understand more than you need to. It is also a good time to express artistic creativity, and to appreciate the arts.

June 14, 2011 5 PM(June 14, 2011 to June 15, 2011) Merc Conj Ven

TRANSITING MERCURY CONJUNCT NATAL VENUS--This transit can stimulate your appreciation of beauty, and your interest in art, music or poetry. It also could indicate that you are more able to express your love, in or out of a relationship. It could help you to understand the intricate patterns which underlie your life as a whole. It is a mental position, working more on the mind than on the feelings. However, you can emotionalize communications, and express your thoughts and feelings in a very articulate way. It should also be favorable for all financial and business transactions.

June 15, 2011 12 PM(June 15, 2011 to June 16, 2011) Merc Sqr Plu

TRANSITING MERCURY SQUARE NATAL PLUTO--Square aspects usually bring challenges and/or obstacles to be overcome, and this one is no exception. This transit can bring hidden forces to light and trigger psychological energies within that could change your life. Positive introspection can bring greater awareness and control of the inner dimensions of your being. On the other hand, it can cause compulsive thinking and a tendency to force your point of view on others. This could produce strong opposition from them. It is important to keep an open mind on all issues and not become obsessed with one idea or thought. You will not want to accept events at face value at this time, and it is a good time to study subjects like psychology, philosophy, mysticism, and the occult.

June 16, 2011 10 PM(June 16, 2011 to June 17, 2011) Sun Conj Ven

TRANSITING SUN CONJUNCT NATAL VENUS--This transit provides power and energy to the emotions and to artistic expression. It helps you to love life and love yourself, though you may need to watch out for narcissism. During this progression you are fond of fun and social activities. The aspect gives you beauty and ease in self expression and the ability to bring happiness to others. You should get along especially well with children, and you have strong affections and romantic drives.

It could bring new light to romantic involvements and love relationships. You need to make new contacts and friendships, for it is a good time for group activities. You may be a little prone to self indulgence during this transit, and may need to watch out for impulse spending.

June 17, 2011 4 AM (June 15, 2011 to June 18, 2011) Mars Trine Plu

TRANSITING MARS TRINE NATAL PLUTO--This transit can stimulate your ambitions, and you will be non-threatening to others around you. It is a good time for efforts toward improving your work situation. You could also correct unsatisfactory conditions in other areas of your life and begin to regenerate any poor psychological and physical health attitudes you might have. Find out what you want to change about yourself and your world and begin by setting some long range plans and implementing them. Your energy level is high and should last for some time. However, efforts should not be for ego inflation alone. They won't work if they are contrary to the best interests of your world at large.

June 17, 2011 8 AM (June 15, 2011 to June 18, 2011) Mars Oppos Jup

TRANSITING MARS OPPOSITE NATAL JUPITER--This aspect can foster over-zealous, over-enthusiastic efforts and applications of the Self. Inflated planning and reckless expansion could extol a heavy price in bargaining, financial matters, and travel. Your luck can turn against you, so be warned. Try to take the conservative approach in all expansive action.

June 17, 2011 10 AM (June 16, 2011 to June 18, 2011) Ven Trine Ura

TRANSITING VENUS TRINE NATAL URANUS--Trine aspects are usually the most supportive, but this transit will make you want to break away from routine and do something different. It may even bring a little excitement into your life. This could also apply to relationships. Any relationship begun under this transit is likely to be "electric" AND exciting, but unstable and short. There could also be an unconventional arrangement in old relationships, such as agreeing to have other lovers. People you meet now will be different from your usual friends. It can be an exciting time, but not one for long term planning toward serious goals. Artistic endeavors could be quite successful, however.

June 18, 2011 6 PM (June 18, 2011 to June 19, 2011) Sun Sqr Plu

TRANSITING SUN SQUARE NATAL PLUTO--The way you live and work will be tested during this transit. The Sun will help to illuminate the areas of your life that are not working very well, and Pluto will influence you to repair (regenerate) them. Be willing to give them up and make room for positive creative changes that can take place now. As in most aspects with Pluto, changes tend to be permanent. You will feel satisfaction from those methods that prove to be right, and a great sense of relief from those that you purged from your life and regenerated.

June 20, 2011 5 AM (June 20, 2011 to June 21, 2011) Merc Trine Moon

TRANSITING MERCURY TRINE NATAL MOON--This transit will put you "in touch with your feelings" and with the feelings of others as well. It is a good time for you to look into yourself and bring the psychological part of your past up to date. You will understand the feeling side of all kinds of communications now and it would be a good time to clear up any emotional situations that you may have with others. They could sense your empathy and be receptive to your efforts to establish better communications. It is imperative for you to be completely honest in all your communications during this transit.

June 21, 2011 8 AM (June 20, 2011 to June 22, 2011) Merc Sqr Ura

TRANSITING MERCURY SQUARE NATAL URANUS--This transit squares off the mental Mercury against the imagination and independence influences of Uranus. Your mind is stimulated and eager. The tempo will be brisk, and it will be hard to remember all your thoughts. You may feel inspired but results tend to be sloppy, for the action can't keep up with the mind. Try to avoid stressful situations and postpone any activities that require your full concentration. Don't make impulsive decisions or engage in any impulsive actions, for accidents could be the result. Uranus is a dual planet with both a mundane and a spiritual plane of influences. During this transit appeal to the higher plane of influences through prayer and meditation.

TRANSITING MERCURY IN THE NINTH HOUSE--Transiting Mercury in the houses deals with the practical affairs that occupy your mind and shows what areas of activity will be influenced by your thoughts and communications. In the ninth house transit, it arouses an interest in higher education, or professions requiring advanced degrees. Many teachers and professors have Mercury in this house. Interest in philosophies can be strong. Your decisions include moral and ethical considerations as well as the practical. You need to guard against intellectual pride and snobbery, during this time. Don't allow yourself to become dogmatic and sectarian in your opinions and beliefs.

June 21, 2011 8 PM (June 21, 2011 to June 22, 2011) Merc Conj Sun

TRANSITING MERCURY CONJUNCT NATAL SUN--This transit will enhance your power to express yourself clearly and strongly. You will be able to impress others and gain their support for your point of view. You will be more able to understand your goals and your purpose, and to communicate them to others. Even if some others don't agree with you, they are likely to understand and support your point of view. With all this personal power you must be careful that the understanding works both ways. There will be several and various types of communications bombarding you during this transit. Understanding and discrimination on your part could be vital. You could feel restless and "tied down", so travel if you need to and let your mind be expanded.

June 22, 2011 3 AM (June 22, 2011 to June 23, 2011) Mars Oppos Nep

TRANSITING MARS OPPOSITE NATAL NEPTUNE--This aspect can bring with it feelings of doubt, discouragement, and inadequacy. You may be forced to face the consequences of past actions that you had hoped would just go away. This is not a time to trust others implicitly--duplicity is quite likely. Also avoid deviousness in your own actions and communications. Remember, squares and oppositions present obstacles and tensions for growth, and the lesson here is to confront these influences without caving in and feeling helpless. Your energies will be low, but try to conserve them and confront your own fears. That could be the most useful thing to come out of this difficult aspect. Your body is extremely sensitive to allergies during this time, and also to the negative side effects of drugs--prescription or otherwise.

TRANSITING VENUS IN THE EIGHTH HOUSE--Venus transiting in the houses influences how you express the Venus attitudes in the various areas of your life and how you may be affected by those things Venus rules. In the eighth house it indicates the possibility of financial gain through marriage, other partnerships, and social relations. It often indicates an inheritance, or that you might even marry for money. You could have a highly sensuous nature now with an emphasis on sex, so that the physical side of a relationship could be very important to you. Your emotions are extremely intense, and you will need to guard against jealousy and possessiveness.

June 23, 2011 11 AM (June 22, 2011 to June 24, 2011) Mars Conj Sat

TRANSITING MARS CONJUNCT NATAL SATURN--This transit can bring frustrations and conflicts, accompanied with a low energy level for you to deal with them. It may seem to you that other people are out to get you, causing you much anger and resentments. Unfortunately, it would be extremely difficult for you to express your anger in any appropriate way, and your energy is not strong enough for a fight or confrontation. The answer is tolerance on your part and patience to wait for another day (or a better transit). Release your frustrations and anger through physical activities--strong exercise or heavy labor. It is a good time to accomplish hard work that requires concentration along with strong physical efforts.

June 25, 2011 3 AM (June 24, 2011 to June 26, 2011) Merc Trine Asc

TRANSITING MERCURY TRINE THE NATAL ASCENDANT--This supportive transit arouses your curiosity and willingness to learn. Your confidence and self-worth are enhanced. Communications are good between you and others, and your ideas are understood and respected.

You have good insight on many subjects and are able to share them well. You are tolerant of the opinions of others, and can make intelligent compromises. This is a good transit for long-range goal planning.

June 26, 2011 (May 6, 2011 to July 20, 2011) Sat Sqr Sun

TRANSITING SATURN SQUARE NATAL SUN--This represents a time of critical developments. Challenges from the outside world may make it difficult for you to maintain your freedom of action in whatever you are trying to do. Your vitality is low, and you may feel discouraged. Patience and perseverance will carry you through until your energy level is up again, so it might be best not to struggle too hard against adversity at this time. Authority figures may be difficult, so be patient. This period is linked to seven years ago which was a time of new beginnings, and some of the things you started then are in crisis now. This is a period of testing to determine whether or not those projects are valid for you now. It may be confusing, but the ones not worth saving will fall by the wayside during this transit, and it is well that you cut your losses, if you can recognize them. The consequences will be crystal clear seven years from now when Saturn is in opposition to your natal Sun. The successful areas of your life will pay off then. Be patient and make this transit a trial, rather than a defeat.

June 27, 2011 6 AM(June 26, 2011 to June 28, 2011) Ven Trine Mars

TRANSITING VENUS TRINE NATAL MARS--This trine aspect supports most activities. Of course, with Venus and Mars involved, the sex drive is likely to be high. In a relationship, this would indicate gentleness and mutual receptivity. In this and in other areas of your life, you are able to assert yourself in ways that enable you to get what you want without offending anybody. Action in some area of artistic expression can be very successful during this time.

June 28, 2011 7 PM(June 28, 2011 to June 29, 2011) Merc Conj Merc

TRANSITING MERCURY CONJUNCT NATAL MERCURY--Mercury is mind and communications. When it is in the same degree in your present time that it was in your natal chart, the influences can be doubled. This is an extremely positive transit for all types of communications. Your mind is sharp and your words and ideas come easily and quickly. You will be able to follow the twists and turns that complex ideas and situations may take. Try to take advantage of this time when your mental energy is high and positive. Complete all communications needs and situations you can during this transit. You will find the interchange of ideas lively and intellectually fulfilling. If travel is strongly indicated, do it.

June 29, 2011 8 AM(June 28, 2011 to June 30, 2011) Sun Trine Moon

TRANSITING SUN TRINE NATAL MOON--Like the sextile aspect, the trine brings a time of inner peace and balance. You have the serenity to look into yourself with a deeper understanding of what you want, what you need, and how you should go about getting it. Your approach to life is balanced, but you should study your personal life and prepare for a period of creative tension and pressures that are approaching a climax. You can live through your feelings as well as your intellect today, and you can communicate with others at both levels. You should examine your personal life and relationships and correct any difficulties and/or misunderstandings with others who may have created such difficulties or misunderstandings between you and them. If the last few months have been a period of breakdowns rather than creative experiences, you need to learn how to pick up the pieces and make a new start. Friendships and love relationships that start under this transit could have lasting consequences on your future life, and could have a strong effect on your attitudes toward life in general.

June 29, 2011 8 PM (June 28, 2011 to July 1, 2011) Mars Sxtil MC

TRANSITING MARS SEXTILE THE NATAL MIDHEAVEN--This is a positive transit for self-confidence and courage. You can pursue your objectives with assurance and wit, and it brings a high energy level. You want to get things done quickly, so you need to watch out for impulsiveness. It is a good transit for working in cooperation with others, provided their energy is also good. Otherwise you will be impatient with them. You can be assertive, but rather mellow with it, so you can usually get your way without offending others. It is a good transit for getting things done in a joint effort with others.

June 30, 2011 10 AM (June 30, 2011 to July 1, 2011) Ven Conj Ven

TRANSITING VENUS CONJUNCT NATAL VENUS--This transit will provide strong influences for you to take the initiative in all kinds of relationships, especially love relationships. Revealing and reiterating your love at this time could turn the relationship in a new direction. You should not leave your feelings to the other one's imagination. You will have a strong desire for beautiful things. Enhance your environment. You will be extremely conscious of all things artistic. Surround yourself with beauty and take advantage of the pleasant aspects of life.

June 30, 2011 2 PM (June 30, 2011 to July 1, 2011) Merc Sxtil Plu

TRANSITING MERCURY SEXTILE NATAL PLUTO--This transit encourages the mind to search beneath the surface and uncover the hidden "truth". It takes you upon a search for the hidden meanings of life. In fact, you will examine everything that comes your way during this transit for its deeper meanings. Pluto's regeneration influences allow you to correct misconceptions, and facilitates true spiritual search. What you learn will have long term effects and will influence your life for the better.

June 30, 2011 4 PM (June 30, 2011 to July 1, 2011) Merc Trine Jup

TRANSITING MERCURY TRINE NATAL JUPITER--This transit expands the mind. It favors all types of business and commercial activity, as it is an excellent time for planning for the future and creating organizational systems. Although Jupiter is sometimes called the "lucky" planet, these things do not happen through luck, but rather through hard work, which the mind is opened up to realize during this time. You are optimistic and positive in your thinking, which, when applied with luck, can lead to phenomenal success.

July 1, 2011 5 PM(June 30, 2011 to July 2, 2011) Sun Sqr Ura

TRANSITING SUN SQUARE NATAL URANUS--This transit can be disruptive. You can expect the UN-expected, such as sudden upsets, sudden arguments and mechanical breakdowns. Relationships can be difficult. The Uranus focus on freedom will cause you to resent any boundaries enforced upon your sense of freedom. You may be tired of the "rut" you think your life is in, and this aspect will urge you to break out of the routine. Your response to these feelings are likely to be felt by others in your life, and they could respond in kind. The Sun is illuminating Uranus' need for total freedom, and you will be bucking all restraints. Try to determine what is really bothering you, and begin to give it positive treatment. Patience is not easy during this time, but impulsive action could cause accidents and injury to you and/or others in your life. Try to "look before you leap".

July 1, 2011 8 PM(July 1, 2011 to July 2, 2011) Ven Sqr Plu

TRANSITING VENUS SQUARE NATAL PLUTO--This transit brings intense emotional experiences within a relationship. The Venus-Pluto combination can create a powerful love involvement that can change your consciousness for a time. However, it is not a good time for stability, and if changes occur in the relationship experiences, they cannot be ignored. You must examine the relationship and determine what, if anything, needs to be changed, and it will do no good to pretend that change is not needed. Every relationship needs to grow in order to remain healthy and alive, but Pluto will not support purely selfish interests.

July 1, 2011 (Mar 26, 2011 to Aug 15, 2011) Nep Sqr Nep

TRANSITING NEPTUNE SQUARE NATAL NEPTUNE--This transit is often a part of the so-called "middle-age crisis" since it occurs between age forty and forty-five. During this time you are likely to severely question your life, your goals, and how far you have come toward fulfilling your ideals. You may feel motivated to make changes, but the danger is that Neptune does not usually provide a clear understanding of reality. It is a good time for self scrutiny, but not a good time to make permanent changes. Many of the insights will be real, but some will be foggy. Only time will allow you to know the difference.

July 2, 2011 4 PM(July 2, 2011 to July 3, 2011) Merc Trine Nep

TRANSITING MERCURY TRINE NATAL NEPTUNE--During this supportive trine aspect the mental Mercury and the mysteries of Neptune are in rare accord. You will be more sensitive than usual to the world around you. Your creative imagination will be stimulated, and it is a good time to get away from the humdrum. You will not want to get involved with super serious subjects, but you are sympathetic and sensitive to others' needs. You can transcend the limits of your natural intellect during this time, and it is a good period to pursue mystical and spiritual studies.

July 2, 2011 (July 1, 2011 to July 29, 2011) Sun 9th H.

TRANSITING SUN IN THE NINTH HOUSE--When the Sun transits this house of your Natal chart, it influences the departments of life most strongly affected by the individual will and power potential. Ninth house position indicates a time of dynamic interest in spiritual and religious pursuits, especially in realms of higher education, religion, law, and philosophy. You have a highly intuitive mind, and may have flashes of inspiration that can help you to solve problems. You could have visions of the future that border on prophecy during this time. You are likely to be interested in distant places and their culture, art forms, and traditions. You will probably have strong moral convictions by which you guide your life. Your beliefs may not be traditional, and you need to be extremely careful to avoid any tendency to impose your religious and moral views upon others.

July 2, 2011 8 PM(July 2, 2011 to July 3, 2011) Sun Conj Sun

TRANSITING SUN CONJUNCT NATAL SUN--The exact date of this aspect marks your true birthday, even though it may vary a day or two from the calendar date. The transit indicates a day of new beginnings. The things you start as a result of this transit's influences will remain with you throughout the year. You may not feel the influences very strongly, but the Sun's energy will be added to your thoughts and efforts. It is a good time for starting projects you may have been putting off, and for allowing thoughts to surface that you may have been suppressing. They could ride this wave of energy to a satisfactory conclusion, especially if fulfillment can be accomplished within the calendar year. There could be the temptation to just let the feelings produced by this transit "go by", but it would be a shame to waste the energy that comes from your inner core during the time this aspect is in orb. You need to be aware that you may crave to be the center of attention during this aspect. Remember, everything in moderation, but this is YOUR "day in the Sun" -- so ENJOY!

July 3, 2011 6 AM(July 2, 2011 to July 4, 2011) Merc Sxtil Sat

TRANSITING MERCURY SEXTILE NATAL SATURN--This supportive transit helps bring the mental and the disciplinary influences into a semblance of cooperation. Your ideals may be challenged and you will want to defend them. To complicate matters, you may be called upon to help or guide someone else who is close to you. You will desire honor and recognition and will work hard to acquire the necessary knowledge and skills to achieve your goals. You are probably a good manager and demand respect. You also want to set a good example for others. You need to watch out for an excessive love of power and for dictatorial attitudes.

TRANSITING MARS SQUARE NATAL PLUTO--This transit has two polarities--it can bring power struggles and disagreements, or it can help you transform and regenerate your world around you. Your energy level will be high and you could get a lot of work done--if you don't create too much opposition doing it. Your ambitions will be enhanced at this time, but they, too, could conflict with someone else. The lesson from this transit is to look at your recent past efforts for any loose ends or shortcuts that need to be attended to or corrected. If they can be cleaned up to the good of all, you should do so. However, if you can't do it without causing conflict with others, it might be better to wait till this transit passes. As in all transits with Pluto, the influences could be those of someone else relating to you, rather than you to them. Also, as in all Pluto aspects, anything attempted must be for the greater good or it either will not work, or it will not do you any good.

July 30, 2011 6 PM(July 30, 2011 to July 31, 2011) Sun Sqr Moon

TRANSITING SUN SQUARE NATAL MOON--This transit brings your emotions into conflict with the conscious will and can cause tension, especially if you have been suppressing feelings about your job, family, or personal life. You may resent authority figures at this time. Remember, square aspects create obstacles to be overcome. Any action you want to take can be confusing. Your conscious will wants logical action, but the emotions want it to "feel" right. This can be uncomfortable, but it can also bring tensions out into the open so you can deal with them. First, determine if you have been avoiding a problem. If something requires action on your part, don't be impulsive. Let it surface completely so that you can handle it with positive strength and emotional conviction. If you have been handling your emotions well, this transit can provide you with physical and emotional energy and much can be accomplished.

July 30, 2011 9 PM (July 28, 2011 to Aug 9, 2011) Merc Sqr Nep

TRANSITING MERCURY SQUARE NATAL NEPTUNE--Squares usually create challenges and obstacles to face and to be overcome, and this one is no exception. Communications can be confused and misunderstood, especially in business dealings. The transit can be supportive of studies in mysticism, but keep it "down-to-earth". There can be a tendency to idealize and daydream. You will want to keep secrets and avoid confrontations, which will only add to the fog and confusion that is present in your life during this time. Be super careful in business dealings now, lest misunderstandings and misrepresentations obscure the issue. You may easily deceive, or be deceived, either deliberately or unknowingly. It can be an aspect of creative change, and keeping your individuality is more important to you than living up to others' expectations. It is a good time for positive changes in your immediate surroundings.

With these risks in mind, this could be a good time to develop ways to exhibit warm, close and protective love attitudes to your partner. Relationships of both men AND women, with women, could be a little strained and difficult during this time. Just remember that square aspects can provide hurdles to be overcome and when properly approached they can help to develop tolerance and patience. Cultivate respect and practice patience.

TRANSITING SUN SQUARE THE NATAL ASCENDANT--This transit gives you much energy in dealing with others. Since it is a square, you must be careful how this energy is applied. You could try to dominate others, or the reverse is possible. The lesson to be learned is harmony. Don't be so willful that you are unable to manage cooperation with others. With care, it is possible to make a favorable impression from the very strength of your position, provided you can prove it without bulldozing it over others. This is a powerful transit for getting things done--but, very carefully.

Aug 11, 2011 1 PM(Aug 11, 2011 to Aug 12, 2011) Ven Sqr Asc

TRANSITING MERCURY SQUARE NATAL JUPITER--Squares usually present challenges and obstacles, but with the expansiveness of Jupiter, the energy seems to "blend". This transit makes you feel optimistic and positive about life. You have the ability to see the "big picture", and are inclined to make big plans and set long range goals. You think in more abstract terms, therefore the implementation of plans could be sloppy. Don't forget details. Watch out for arrogance in communications. With awareness, this transit can be a great force for good.

You are in a "fighting spirit" in a positive sense with this transit, and will stand up for what you believe in without stepping on the toes of others.

Aug 14, 2011 4 PM(Aug 13, 2011 to Aug 15, 2011) Sun Oppos Mars

TRANSITING SUN OPPOSITE NATAL MARS--This indicates a period when many matters come to a climax in your life. It is the moment of truth for many activities you have been working on, and it will become clear whether you have been operating skillfully and intelligently. Your ego energies are aroused and must not be allowed to function on the unconscious level. You need to elevate your sense of awareness and see things realistically. Anything that makes you angry is usually something with which you have identified your ego. With the best of intentions and understandings, you will be confrontational during this transit. If you can avoid impulsiveness, the results of confrontation can sharpen and define your position. If it is not well thought-out and planned, your position could be invalidated. The area of personal relationships is at greatest risk in this time. Don't suppress them and turn the energies inward, for that could cause self-destructive behavior, accidents, or illness. You will want to take action on your freedom instincts, and you will feel challenged upon your ability to be yourself. You will need to control these impulses lest they bring on revolt and rebellion. You need to create the appearance and the activity of on-going growth and change, and be satisfied with gradual improvement. The action elements of Mars and the freedom demands of Uranus will make this difficult, but drastic actions will only make things worse. Avoid conflict with authority figures during this time. Fortunately, Mars transits only last about three or four days, and when you know they are coming, at least you can discipline yourself to wait them out while you go on with the other areas of your life in a positive manner.

Aug 19, 2011 10 AM(Aug 19, 2011 to Aug 20, 2011) Mars Conj Sun

TRANSITING MARS CONJUNCT NATAL SUN--This is an extremely high energy transit. You will have to be careful in everything you do, because the high energy level can have explosive consequences. You can stand up to anyone during this transit, and the ego energy can make you very aggressive. Be careful with superiors and bosses, You need to remember that others have egos, too, for this transit could result in physical and mental fights. Use that physical energy in getting enormous amounts of work done, and if that is not enough, try physical exercise. Do not suppress the energy, for that could cause it to come out in fights or accidents. If you can apply it intelligently, much can be accomplished during this transit.

Life has not forced this on you--you reinforce the feelings by not challenging them. You need to break out of this "vicious circle" by taking a positive look at the world and the people around you. Your physical and psychological energies are low, and you are likely to be holding yourself back. The purpose of discouragement is to reveal the weaknesses and the areas where you need to shore up your strength and self-confidence. At this time, try to recall all the successful efforts you have experienced in your lifetime and all the obstacles you have already overcome. Remember, also, all the good relationships you have had with other people and don't forget to cherish those you still have. Don't let your negative attitude deny that there has been positive experiences in your life.
