Dear friends:

Welcome to the Compatibility and Conflict Report and the myriad ways of expressing the continual dance of life. This report is based on methods employed through years of working with couples, observing relationships and analyzing the lives of the famous and infamous. The contacts described within this program are certainly not all the combinations possible between two people. But they are the core patterns of relationship analysis that I begin with in determining areas of compatibility and potential conflict between two people. I analyze these basic points of contact to arrive at my interpretation of what is central for an enduring relationship or for one that teaches something of importance and leaves a lasting impression. Additional parts, patterns and interpretations will be added to this report in the future.

In many of the interpretations, I've described the highest potential that one can strive for with a particular combination. Yet it is only a potential and we are human and have complex emotions and contradictory issues and reactions at any given time in our lives. Use this report as a guideline to make your relationships as rewarding and fulfilling as you possibly can. And know that your relationships are simply mirroring your own soul's struggles. Each relationship will fulfill something within you and challenge you to look at your shadow and transform yourself. Sometimes this means staying with a partner or a relationship and sometimes the learning process requires that you let the relationship go. These decisions are never easy and they should only be made after careful and truthful introspection, reflection and guidance. But ultimately, these decisions are yours and yours alone to make. Remember that variety is the spice of life and that although you may have some difficult areas of relating with a partner, it is in those areas that you can learn the most about yourself and others and grow in wisdom. It would be a mistake to look for a partner with whom you have no disagreements at all and this kind of relationship is a fantasy, rarely if ever, a reality.

Thank you for purchasing this report and I hope it is meaningful and useful to you.

Special thanks to John Flagg for unflagging editorial support.

Chapter 1: Enjoyment, Closeness and Lasting Impressions

This section is based on the idea that there are three basic needs in every relationship:

- * Interest, energy and stimulation or sexuality.
- * Enjoyment, abundance, expansion of awareness and happiness.
- * Patterns for commitment, consistency, teaching each other or reaffirming something essential one for the other and vice versa.

The sort between your charts is for eleven separate aspects that define energy, fun and lasting impressions between you. Most strong relationships have at least four to six of these aspects between their charts.

Kristen Stewart's and Robert Pattinson's Sun and Mars in mutual hard aspect:

This aspect is active, restless, assertive and can even get aggressive. Basically you stimulate, energize and challenge each other. Mutual respect is one of the lessons here. Avoid making demands and confronting your partner in anger. Give yourself a chance to cool down first. Work-out or otherwise reduce your body tension before addressing the problem areas of your relationship. Managing anger and taking action is part of the reason you are together. That doesn't mean never getting angry but rather learning to deal with anger in a healthy and productive way. Take turns leading in any mutual projects and allow yourselves to have individual projects without undue interference from the other partner. One person may be tempted to control the actions of the other. Ultimately, this will backfire and create resentment between you. This aspect can provide more than enough stimulation and get up and go for both of you. Use this energy you have together to fuel your projects and achieve your goals rather than wasting it by battling with each other. You could even choose to lobby for or support a cause together to harness the wonderfully proactive energy this combination brings. Your relationship will tend to be restless unless you provide an outlet for the strong physical energy the two of you generate together. This aspect will require newness or stimulation on a regular basis and can indicate that, together, you are project people, always involving yourselves in a fresh venture or adventure.

Kristen Stewart's Moon Square Robert Pattinson's Mars:

There is immediacy to this connection, sometimes positive and other times negative. The intent of this aspect is to stimulate and create a reaction in the other person and to release emotions. This can be accomplished in endless ways. The two of you are likely to find each other exciting and interesting and you will quickly generate strong emotional and physical reactions in each other. If you are in a romantic relationship, the erotic or sexual component is more than likely very active. You know how to reach each other or to push each other's buttons in the positive and the negative sense. If you don't get the response you want from the other person, it could make you angry. If you are able to observe this dynamic between the two of you, you will succeed in developing much greater sensitivity in the way you relate. Instead of simply reacting, seek to understand and discuss what is happening with your partner. Irritation is inevitable but out-of-control anger is inexcusable.

This aspect can be selfish, so grow up. You can't always have what you want but you can certainly lobby for it and state your case. Being pushy or instantaneously wanting your needs met is natural but childish. Learn to negotiate and take turns getting what you want. If one person continually creates a tempest in a teapot, anger coaching or aggression management will be necessary to the survival of your relationship. A relationship cannot remain a battleground for too long before the battle scars create permanent damage and eventual dissolution of the relationship. Finding the true source of your anger will be key and is probably one of the reasons the two of you met to begin with.

Robert Pattinson's Asc in Cancer and Kristen Stewart's Asc in Cancer:

Sharing the same ASC sign is a bit like looking in the mirror. You'll be observing another person using some of the same patterns and behaviors that you use. Although disconcerting to say the least, you will learn a great deal about yourself through your partner's behavior. The two of you tend to have similar ways of projecting yourself into life, a similar outlook and energetically identical ways of approaching situations. The opportunity here is for greater tolerance and understanding. The message is self-development and refinement of personal expression, as you observe another person using energy like your own but managing it somewhat differently. Because of the reflection, you will learn new things about yourselves. Additionally, you will gain a sense of how others perceive you and your behavior.

Robert Pattinson's MC in Pisces and Kristen Stewart's MC in Pisces:

You have similar career styles and objectives and priorities. You may both work in the same type or a closely related career. You can easily sympathize or identify with the career issues of your partner because they are so much like your own. The intent of this aspect is to remind each other in some way of what is most important to strive for, or what is worth your commitment of time and energy. You can each help the other with matters pertaining to those objectives or your careers. One intention beneath this aspect is to emphasize career or top priority matters and you're together to work on this. You share many of the same overall priorities and may decide to strive for the same achievements in life.

Kristen Stewart's Sun Square Robert Pattinson's Asc.:

This aspect brings challenge to each of your natural ways of expressing your personality and character. Your interaction can at times be uncomfortable because of an initial inability to understand where the other is coming from in some important area of your life together. It will take a greater measure of tolerance and respect for differences before you can attain harmony in your relationship. At times, you will appear to be going in very different, even opposite directions. There is no relationship law that says you must always approach things in one particular way only. The essence of this aspect asks you to allow each other to be who you are and express yourselves freely, without undue interference from your partner. At the same time, the aspect will challenge your ability for tolerance and different ways of expressing and approaching life situations. Alleviate the potential difficulties of this aspect by really listening to your partner and appreciating who they are and what they are trying to accomplish. You may discover something you didn't know before.

Robert Pattinson's Moon Conj Kristen Stewart's Asc.:

You will feel a strong and quite natural emotional connection with each other. Very likely, you will stimulate a wide range of emotions in each other. You are even likely to tap into the past and bring forth feelings long held in check. You may be so much at ease in each other's company that you reveal personal information naturally, surprising both of you. Something about the other person makes you feel safe enough to allow this. Emotions arise readily but may not always be comfortable and easy to deal with. In the moment, you may feel free to tell all but after the fact, you may be concerned about what you've so readily expressed. There's no way around it, this relationship will be a strongly emotional one. Be careful of projecting past experiences into the current relationship. The aspect asks you to deal with stored emotions and how you are using the past in relation to the present moment. You will find yourselves sorting through a great deal of sensitive feelings and the sheer flood of emotions can be overwhelming at times. Growing too dependent on your partner to satisfy too many of your emotional needs could be another issue here. You will each have to decide which emotions of the other you can integrate and how best to handle the inevitable extra sensitivity you generate when you are together. Sometimes the emotional reactivity to each other creates misunderstanding or you rub each other the wrong way. Trust and caring will be vital in your relationship to calm the waves of emotion. Reassure each other but give each other a break. It is important that you find an outlet for your excess emotions. Giving to others in some form of joint community service could be one way that works for you. Creative outlets could be another.

Kristen Stewart's Moon Square Robert Pattinson's Asc.:

This aspect requires that you explore the dynamic of emotion and action or that you are willing to act on the emotional needs required of your life together. One or both of you may have difficulty with excessive displays of emotion. When you are together and either of you is overly sensitive due to tiredness or any sort of stress, the expression of emotions can become extreme. Feelings seem to burst from either of you almost unexpectedly and in a flood. After one too many emotional outbursts, one or both of you may be reluctant to fully express yourself for fear of negative reactions from the other. Unmet needs will quickly become damaging to your relationship. There may be times that you feel out of sync with your partner and feel misunderstood or not properly acknowledged. This can be quite frustrating. To prevent unwanted and unwarranted dumping of emotions, make time regularly in your relationship life for the venting of emotions or simply set aside a time when you are calm, to process and discuss your emotional life. This tactic will prevent feelings from being bottled up and reduce excessively emotional scenes or emotions expressed inappropriately.

Robert Pattinson's Sun Trine Kristen Stewart's Saturn:

This aspect requires that both of you work on developing form and structure in your relationship with each other and the projects of your choice. Maturation and elaborating your specific priorities for a successful life are themes the two of you will be evolving. Expect initiation into higher levels of functioning. This is a growth aspect. Accepting and handling responsibilities of various kinds will be a normal, natural part of your relationship life. In fact, you are likely to seek challenges. There is a desire for order and accomplishment in anything you pursue together. As a team, you appear to enjoy structuring, leading and organizing. Others see you as achievement-oriented and effective at what you create together. As partners, you require a certain level of commitment and you are likely to want a strong foundation on which to build a life. Your energy together leans toward the conservative and you desire value over volume. The intent of this pattern is for longevity and solidity to the extent that you can create this within your relationship, you will have fulfilled the purpose of the aspect.

Robert Pattinson's Moon Conj Kristen Stewart's Jupiter:

You evoke joy, hope, goodwill and a sense of adventure in each other. So much so that you could also be easily induced to overdo and overextend yourselves in various ways. You are likely to stimulate a wealth of feelings in each other and a generally open-minded attitude. You probably want the good life and all that it implies for you. Abundance or excessiveness is part of this aspect, which is certainly not always a negative. It's up to the two of you to decide how far to reach and how far to extend yourselves. Essentially a positive influence of opportunities, and an expression of generosity, the energy you generate together can bring you all kinds of good fortune. As a team, you can be a beacon of encouragement, hope and positive influence wherever you go. Your most important lesson is balance and wise choices that not only enhance joy but also maintain a level of stability. Looking on the upside is easy for you but be sure to consider the downside and the consequences of your risk-taking and expansion. Make certain you can afford it energetically, emotionally, spiritually or financially. Look for a strong Saturn aspect between your charts to counterbalance the overly optimistic tendency of this aspect. Take the necessary time to assess expectations which may be unrealistic. Then again, the two of you can break records and surpass goals by the sheer force of your willingness to move ahead and try something new. Your enthusiasm will open doors and create opportunities. More than that, the natural positive energy between you can provide endless resources and options when times get tough.

Robert Pattinson's Mars Opp Kristen Stewart's Asc.:

You will quickly sense the excitement and even the sexual tension of this aspect. Each of you will feel that your awareness is raised a notch by your association with the other. And there could be times when you feel that your partner is being too aggressive or pushy. You will have to learn to push back, maintain the boundaries comfortable for you, and let your partner know when the action is out of line or inappropriate. This aspect is prone to argumentativeness, so it would behoove you to establish some rules in advance for those inevitable times of conflict. You can use up the high energy generated by being project leaders in a mutual endeavor or community service. If you argue about how to initiate or proceed, then learn to take turns, so that each of you gets to do it their own way at least some of the time. Having independent projects will also alleviate the tension of your differing styles and approaches to situations. The beauty of this aspect is that you will form a clearer sense of who you are and what you stand for while being challenged by the individuality of your partner. Think about that when the two of you go head to head!

Kristen Stewart's Moon Trine Robert Pattinson's Venus:

There is a genuine liking of each other, a very natural affection and sweetness in your relationship. It is one aspect between you that will support you during times of conflict. This energy combination adds to the desire for partnership and naturally gravitates to finding mutual ground for agreement. You will enjoy creating a secure and appealing home environment, if you share living space. There is a natural aesthetic appreciation that could lead you to participate in various artistic or creative pursuits. You will be drawn to the finer things in life and will have to keep tabs on your budget. Others will respond easily to the warm and affectionate energy you have for each other, since it will be obvious that you like each other. Social activities are highlighted and with a bit of effort the two of you can create a fine network of friendships.

Chapter 2: Emotions and Communication Between You

These aspects detail the quality of the emotional connection and basic comfort between the two of you and your ease or difficulty in communicating, talking with each other and simply understanding where each of you is coming from. These aspects also describe how you reason together and resolve issues or problems.

Robert Pattinson's Moon Square Kristen Stewart's Moon:

Although you are attracted to each other on many levels, your basic day-to-day habits are probably very different. You approach life's mundane chores and happenings in ways that may not be clearly understood by your partner. Your feelings and responses can sometimes be confusing for the other person, as much as they care for you and want to understand. This can cause not only friction on a regular basis but also frustration for both of you. Your habits and peculiarities can grate on each other and be the cause of arguments and misunderstanding. If you care for each other, you will, with patience and willingness to compromise, resolve some of these differences. Still, you operate differently internally, which stems very much from your upbringing and how you responded to your early conditioning. These habits and predilections can be difficult to change, and you may simply have to accept the differences in each other. Discussing your feelings openly is a crucial part of this combination. There is a good chance that, once you really understand the emotions behind the attitude or habitual responses of your partner, greater tolerance will result. On the other hand, once your partner understands how you are affected by a particular response or habit, modifying the offending or annoying behavior is part of the compromise necessary for relationship harmony. This aspect definitely requires more tolerance, acceptance and willingness to allow for differences in mood and reaction. You have attracted this combination because you need to dig deeper into your habitual ways of responding and seek out the roots of your behavior by exploring your upbringing. There are many things you do that are unconscious and automatic, and contact with your partner will allow you to take a closer look, modify the negatives and also reaffirm your strongest feelings.

Robert Pattinson's Mercury Conj Kristen Stewart's Mercury:

There are many different ways to communicate and the two of you seem to be on the same wavelength most of the time. In other words, your partner understands and responds well to your style and method of reasoning, thinking and expressing your thoughts and feelings. You can make yourselves understood the first time, without rehashing and reiterating endlessly. Of course, you won't agree on everything all of the time, but coming to agreement on issues important to you or perceiving what the other wants to communicate will be easier. Your styles of intelligence are also similar and your preferences for mental stimulation could be the same. You are likely interested in many of the same subjects or enjoy learning together. In fact, one the best features of your relationship is that you can say about each other, "You understand me, you really understand me. I can tell you anything." You can talk for hours and never get bored. There's simply a natural connection which will make the rest of your lives together -- and your inevitable challenges -- that much easier. Because, when you put your heads together, you're more likely to arrive at a solution you can both live with than either of you could separately.

Chapter 3: Fulfilling Each Other's Partnerships Needs

These aspects explain how you meet each other's desires and dreams in special partnerships and one-on-one relationships. These aspects are based on what your natal chart describes that you're looking for in any major relational interaction.

Robert Pattinson's Sun Trine Kristen Stewart's 7th house ruler, Saturn:

You have an important task to execute together. There is a seriousness of purpose that you will both feel, even when you first meet. You will be unable to take each other for granted and in fact find that you respect each other's competence. Although you feel the importance of the connection, you will have challenges and tests that will sometimes be daunting. These are the tests that will determine whether it is possible for the two of you to forge a longer-term relationship or commitment with each other. Some of your issues are trust, respect, commitment and integrity. Another likely issue is one of time. It could be that when you meet, one or even both of you are for some reason, unavailable to establish a relationship. You may have to wait for another time to make contact or negotiate a contract together. Doing business together is a strong possibility, since you are both inclined to be ambitious and want to progress and advance in your careers and lifestyle in general. A rift can take place if the two of you cannot agree on principles that are essential to one or the other of you. The intent of this aspect is to create certainty in both of your minds by testing the rules you live by, how much you are willing to compromise and for what. If you succeed in forging a commitment together, others will tend to look up to you and respect your characters and how you conduct yourselves in life and work.

Kristen Stewart's Venus Square Robert Pattinson's 7th house ruler, Saturn:

After just a short while together, you may feel that your relationship has a fated quality or that you were meant to be together in some important way. It's possible that you can recognize the reasons you are together easily or they may develop over time. Whether you have a conscious understanding of what draws you to each other is not as important as your acknowledgement of the inescapably deep feelings you do have. There is a certain amount of ambition that comes with this combination, and you will have to decide how to balance and mesh your careers with your personal life. Your commitment to each other is likely to be tested, and how you pass the tests will set the course of your life or contract together. Each of you may bring personal responsibilities to the relationship and you will tend to create more in your partnership together. You will gradually determine patterns and boundaries that suit your style and fit the level of responsibility and leadership you wish to assume. The intent of this aspect is to bring you in touch with the core principles by which you live and the standards that define your characters. The strength and reliability you display will be recognized by others, and they will trust you with as much responsibility as you are able and willing to shoulder.

Robert Pattinson's Mars Conj Kristen Stewart's 7th house ruler, Saturn:

You will challenge and teach each other, but the lessons you learn from each other can either be difficult or supportive and affirming. Commitment holds you together and lack of it will create deep riffs or break your relationship up altogether. There is a strict code of conduct by which you are drawn together and by which you guide all the actions of your partnership. You can achieve great and worthy goals together, provided you can agree on a course of action and the principles by which you will conduct yourselves. You are likely quite ambitious and have clearly defined goals you want to reach. Timing factors (too early, too late or being out of phase) can help or hinder you in your effort to reach your goals. The intent of this aspect is to make you aware of how a sense of community (even your personal family group) and the security and safety within it affect your performance and your lifestyle. Your determination is commendable, as is your persistence in the pursuit of your desires. You will be judged on your adherence to certain principles of behavior and character that are expected either by society or within the tribe or community to which you belong. Still your fiercest judgment will come from yourselves insofar as you live up to your own set of rules and your own standards of excellence.

Chapter 4: Your Closest Contacts, Your Strongest Themes

This section interprets the closest connections between your charts. The idea is that the closest ties explain the major or central themes of your relationships and the reason you have come together. The nature of these aspects will also define the main activities, interests and patterns that comprise your life together.

Notice that in this section each paragraph contains both the easier expression of energies as well as the more challenging ones. Both interpretations are included because these close connections pertain to the central learning curve of your relationship. Based on the premise that the more exact the connection (also the closest energetic contact) between your pair of planets, the more psychologically significant the aspect will be for each of you. This means that you are likely to be strongly influenced by each other in the areas described. Because of this, it will be useful to consider both the easier and more challenging interpretations even though you lead with one of them. You will, from time to time and in various circumstances, probably exhibit some elements of each group, both the easier expressions as well as the more challenging ones. Another thing -- it's possible with both types of aspects that you will have the same challenges but simply respond or react to them in different ways. The goal is to rise to the best possible expression of each combination. This is the learning curve and this bestows wisdom.

Kristen Stewart's Mars Sextile Robert Pattinson's Uranus (easier aspect):

If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme concerns accepting and expressing uniqueness and being comfortable with being different. Standing for truthfulness, the bigger picture, taking the high road and human rights are other characteristics of this aspect.

Easier aspects: In your partnership, you are seeking an elevated level of consciousness. Telling the truth and standing up for your rights as an individual are keys to relationship happiness. You are attracted to each other's unique looks and qualities. There could be ethnic or religious differences between you, but for you that's what makes your relationship special. You are not in the habit of looking at what the herd is doing before you act. You make your own decisions. This means that you are sometimes seen as unusual or involved in advanced or non-conformist activities. You support human rights issues, and it is important for you to find a group of like-minded individuals with whom you can connect.

Challenging aspects: You are both strong-willed individuals who want to do things your own way. Because of this, the compromise needed in partnership will not be easy for you. Give each other as much personal freedom as you can handle and still feel that you're in a relationship. It's important for you to be best friends, so never lie to your partner, a cardinal sin with this aspect. Your natural rebellious spirit can get you caught up in some questionable activities. It's always worth asking what you're trying to change and if how you're doing it is the least destructive way for all concerned.

Kristen Stewart's Neptune Conj Robert Pattinson's 7th house cusp:

If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme concerns sensitive, compassionate attunement to others and to your surroundings. There is also a strong artistic sensibility and self-expression with this aspect.

Challenging aspects: Your kindness and compassion can be displaced, and you need to be conscious of your boundaries and those of others. You easily absorb the energies of the environment or people close to you. Take regular time to retreat and sort out the stimuli you've picked up, in order to alleviate the saturation and, oftentimes, confusion that results. Because you are sensitive, protect yourselves from being taken advantage of. Sometimes, life is difficult for those with your sensibility, but avoid substance abuses. Instead, seek sources of inspiration such as music, the arts, meditation or a spiritual practice and spend time with positive people.

Easier aspects: Your relationship is focused more on inner feelings and sensibilities than on the external masks you wear. The way you feel when you are together and the energy exchanged between you mean more to you than other characteristics. You have a silent way of communicating with each other that is endearing to those who know you. Both of you are likely to be interested in service or community work of some kind. Bringing hope and inspiration into situations that are difficult, and providing understanding and relief means much to you. Music and the arts runs like a thread through your lives.

Robert Pattinson's Moon Opp Kristen Stewart's Uranus (challenging aspect):

If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme revolves around the need for freedom, independence, truthfulness and creative self-expression. Human rights and basic freedoms for all people are recurring issues.

Challenging aspects: Sometimes the desire for excitement in your life becomes too dramatic or even an unwanted disruption. You often find yourselves in controversial or uncomfortable situations with others. You are creative and innovative in your outlook and often serve as catalysts to increase awareness in a situation that is stuck. At times, you can be too blunt or too abrupt and you will antagonize others. Your moods can be erratic, which makes people feel uncertain of you, and your rebelliousness can alienate people. Make sure you have enough unstructured time in your life so that you can feel free and independent.

Easier aspects: Yours is not a conventional lifestyle, nor do you even want that. You are happiest when you've created a pattern of living that suits your individual tastes. You are original, eclectic and even a bit eccentric in your approach to life and in the activities and friendships you seek. Others will be attracted to your sparkle, your straightforwardness and your sense of fun. You strive to be alert to community and global events and are interested or involved in human rights activism. Your lives are peppered with excitement and creative flair.

Kristen Stewart's Sun Sextile Robert Pattinson's Venus (easier aspect):

If this is the most exact contact between your charts, you will be concerned with the quality and balance of your relationship. In fact, all the relationships that arise as a result of your partnership will be of great importance to you. How to resolve conflict through cooperation and negotiation will be a core preoccupation.

Easier aspects: There is a natural sweetness and harmony in your life together. You are genuinely fond of each other and appreciate each other's qualities and gifts. It will be easier for the two of you to define a relationship style that both of you can agree upon. And, you can easily express your tender and loving feelings for each other. Your social life will be full and you will actively seek social occasions.

Challenging aspects: Although you do appreciate and genuinely like each other, there will be times that you act in ways that seem to be unkind, inconsiderate, or lack caring. At those times, you will appear to be taking your partner for granted and that is not good for your relationship. No relationship can survive without sufficient praise and acknowledgement. Self-indulgence or spending can be an issue. Compromising too much to satisfy your partner and thus losing self-esteem can be another sore point.

Robert Pattinson's Sun Square Kristen Stewart's Mars (challenging aspect):

If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your relationship theme will revolve around your separate and mutual identities, your careers, how you initiate action and your involvements in progressive ventures. How you deal with anger is another essential issue.

Challenging aspects: Impatience to get going or feeling held back can cause misunderstandings. There is almost a compulsion to take action and at times you will be seen as aggressive. At other times, your directness will get something that was stuck moving again. You will need to learn to modify your impatience both with yourself and with others. The expression and resolution of anger between you can be problematic. Take time to cool off before you seek to resolve your differences. Be sure to give each other credit when credit is due and work on your selfishness and need for immediate gratification.

Easier aspects: You are an energetic couple and will seek many opportunities to be active or to be leaders in your careers or your community. You are initiators rather than followers. Physicality is important, as well as maintaining a healthy body and an active sexual expression. You seem to have an easier time finding positive ways to handle anger and generally have a healthy self-image.
