Dear friends:

Welcome to the Compatibility and Conflict Report for Business and Friendship and the myriad ways of expressing the continual dance of relationship. This report is based on methods employed through years of working with relationships of all kinds, observing them and analyzing the lives of the famous and infamous. The contacts described in this program are certainly not all the combinations possible between two individuals. But they are the core patterns of relationship analysis that I begin with in determining areas of compatibility and potential conflict between individuals. These basic points of contact are analyzed to arrive at an interpretation of what is central for a strong relationship or for one that teaches something of importance and leaves a lasting impression.

In many of the interpretations, I've described the highest potential that one can strive for with a particular combination. Yet this is only a potential and being human we have complex emotions and contradictory issues and reactions at any given time in our lives. Use this report as a guide to make your relationships as rewarding and fulfilling as you possibly can while knowing that your relationships are simply mirroring your own soul's struggles. Each relationship will fulfill something within you and challenge you to look at your shadow and transform yourself. Sometimes this means staying in a relationship and sometimes the learning process requires that you let the relationship go. These decisions are never easy and they should only be made after careful and truthful introspection, reflection and guidance. But ultimately, these decisions are yours and yours alone to make. Remember that although you may have some difficult areas of relating with a particular person, it is in those areas that you can learn the most about yourself and others and grow in wisdom. It would be a mistake to look for a business partner or friend with whom you have no disagreements at all and this kind of relationship is a fantasy, rarely if ever, a reality.

Thank you for purchasing the report and I hope it is meaningful and useful to you.

Special thanks to John Flagg for unflagging editorial support.

Chapter 1

Bonds For Energy, Fun and Lasting Impressions

This section is based on the idea that there are three basic needs in every relationship:

- Interest, energy and stimulation.
- Enjoyment, abundance, expansion of awareness/possibilities and sense of contentment or happiness.
- Commitment, consistency, teaching each other, sharing values or reaffirming/confirming something essential in each other.

The sort between your charts is for eleven separate aspects that define energy, fun and lasting impressions between you. Most strong relationships have at least four to six of these aspects between their charts.

Katy Perry's Sun Trine Taylor Swift's Moon:

Core Themes: With an easy aspect of the Sun and Moon between your charts, there is an instant recognition of familiarity and compatibility. You naturally like each other and enjoy each other's company. You share some very similar attitudes, habits, likes and dislikes. You reflect and expand each other's instinctive and emotional behaviors. You may find yourselves saying the same things simultaneously or even having the same thoughts at the same time. Clearly, you will experience being comfortable with each other more often than not whenever you are together.

There will be many areas where you will readily agree with each other, yet at the same time, be sure to allow yourselves to have your differences. This smooth way of relating that you generate so naturally will serve you well when you come up against difficulties or obstacles. You have a day-to-day ease and familiarity that sustains you. With this combination, you will tend to reflect each other well and enjoy each other's personality and ways of expressing yourselves, which makes working together natural and pleasant. Often you will feel joined by the other in stimulating ways and volley energy back and forth in a way that's satisfying and makes you smile. You have many of the same likes, dislikes, attitudes and sensibilities, possibly similar backgrounds. There is a natural understanding of each other's essential being. The intent of this aspect is to create ease and harmony between you.

Taylor Swift's Moon Trine Katy Perry's Asc.:

Core Themes: There is an easy outlet for the expression of emotions in your relationship and your association will have a strong emotional component. Provided you can handle the extra measure of emotional sensitivity, your relationship is enhanced by support of each other's feelings. The intent of this aspect is to increase your caring and nurturing capacities with each other and those whose lives you touch. Compassion and understanding in action is an important feature of your relationship.

You are likely to enjoy many of the same activities and have a unique and relaxed understanding of each other, that makes being with together very comfortable. Interfacing with others and the public at large is an important additional and easy way the two of you relate when you are together. People, the public and social issues are not only of interest to you but you're natural with the public. Most people will find you caring, compassionate and sincere, because somehow you are able to put yourselves in the other person's shoes. Business activities involving the public or any aspect of community concerns including finances and housing, commodities and commerce will be easy for you as a team.

Katy Perry's Moon Sextile Taylor Swift's Saturn:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to build strong, lasting foundations and to develop and maintain emotional and material security. Resolving issues and finding solutions together will become a core talent. This aspect contributes to relationship longevity and significance because the inclination to build a solid relationship is inherent in the combination.

Mutual support for and commitment to the rules to which you've agreed for your relationship will be easier to maintain and will be valuable to both of you. There is a natural tolerance for the inevitable problems of life and a decided lack of whining. Just be sure that you don't make more problems for yourselves because you're so good at dealing with them or take on more responsibility than you should. Others will find you a dependable pair and will look up to you and respect you. It would be easy for you, as a team, to take a leadership role of some kind in the community, since organization, reliability and planning are natural talents for you. There is a greater chance of permanence for all your endeavors together because of the time, care and attention you put into them. With your skills of maintenance and self-improvement you will accomplish much and ensure the longevity of your relationship.

Katy Perry's Sun Trine Taylor Swift's Jupiter:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to have you experience large doses of good fortune, joy, exuberance, adventure, opportunity and optimism. Your lives will open up and expand as a result of your relationship. There is a distinct desire for comfort and ease but, if not balanced well, this can lead to laziness or procrastination. The challenge in this aspect is to maintain the health of both the mind and body. There's an inclination to take a philosophical attitude toward life experiences and to gain from life's richness and variety.

There is a philanthropic quality to your business association. Together, you are willing to do things in a big way and take risks in the process. As business associates you will enhance and benefit each other. Goodwill and positive thinking, provided that you've done your homework and accepted the consequences, will bring you many wonderful experiences and praise from others. Because it will be easy for you to give of yourselves or your resources, you will need to choose carefully. Overextending yourselves is a real problem and can easily cause your optimism to crash. Boredom is anathema, and so both of you will have your antennae out for the next project to tackle. A regular amount of physical activity is vital and will keep you healthy and your ideas prolific.

Taylor Swift's Moon Opp Katy Perry's Jupiter:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to stimulate emotional satisfaction and a generous, openhearted disposition. The intent of this aspect is also to teach you better judgment and encourage wisdom from the many and varied experiences you actively seek. The attributes of joy, hope, good will and a sense of adventure are highlighted. Feelings of expansiveness can easily induce you to overdo and overextend yourselves in various ways. You are likely to stimulate a wealth of feelings in each other and a generally open-minded attitude. The good life beckons and all that this implies. Abundance or excessiveness is part of this aspect, which is certainly not always a negative. It's up to you to decide how far to reach and how far to extend yourselves. Your enthusiasm will open doors and create opportunities.

This aspect leans towards excessiveness. Whether an expression is excessive, over the top or fitting for a particular context is something that you and your business partner will have to decide. How much is too much and the resultant consequences form the learning curve that you will be testing together. This aspect requires that you determine how you are exceeding your boundaries and whether that's a good thing or not. Emotions will go out of control from time to time, particularly when one of you is overwhelmed with too much to handle. There will be times of poor judgment when you will discover that you failed to take an important element of a situation into consideration. Resist saying yes until you've evaluated the conditions or slept on the idea or proposal. Exaggeration and failing to keep promises will create problems and so will over optimism without full knowledge of the facts. If you experience too much "bad luck," re-evaluate your choices and be generous wherever you can to maintain the balance between taking and giving.

Katy Perry's Mars Conj Taylor Swift's Asc.:

Core Themes: The immediacy of this aspect can be stimulating or disconcerting. Either way, it will initiate a greater awareness of yourself in relation to people and situations around you. The intent of this aspect is to fire up your energies and galvanize your self-assertive capabilities. It encourages self-understanding, initiation and self-protection if necessary.

One of you may have a strong instant appreciation for the qualities of the other and begin an assertive pursuit to initiate a relationship. The ASC person however, may find the Mars person too aggressive and disagreements over what to do and how to do it can easily arise between you. Whatever the issues are, how one or both of you uses or misuses your energy, assertiveness or anger will come up for review. You will need to take turns meeting each other's agenda or goals. If one of you is always leading and calling the shots or choosing the activities the two of you will participate in, the other will eventually rebel. The intent of this combination of forces is to awaken you to take action on your own behalf. It stimulates self-assertion by challenging your sense of identity. Although this process is not always comfortable, it will get you moving, sometimes by raising your anger. This is a challenging and competitive business combination.

Chapter 2

Emotions and Communication

The following aspects detail the quality of your emotional connection, your basic level of comfort and your ease or difficulty in communicating, and discussing emotions and simply understanding where each of you is coming from. Additionally, these aspects help describe how you reason together and resolve issues or problems.

Taylor Swift's Moon in Cancer, and Katy Perry's is in Scorpio:

Core Themes: Similar emotional needs are indicated, as are, to some extent, comparable dispositions. Daily habits can coincide, making it easier to share the same physical spaces for long periods of time. In matters of timing, it is likely that you will have similar understandings and be more in agreement than not. The intent of this aspect is to find your way to emotional understanding and harmony and to respect the feelings of the other person.

You are blessed with a similar overall emotional style and disposition, which makes understanding each other and working together easier. You share some of the same rhythms and personal habits or predilections that make daily contact more comfortable. Timing will not be as much an issue, in that you can more easily and quickly respond to each other's levels of excitement or emotional energy and empathize with each other's disappointments. You will feel met by the other because you're very much on the same wavelength. Environments that comfort and support you are more often similar than not, for your associate or business partner. Social connections and the types of people you choose to interact with tend to be of the same general type. And you will appreciate the fact that you share many interests and are able to enjoy numerous activities together. This is not to say that at times you won't be totally perplexed by each other's reactions because, of course, there are other factors in each of your personalities that must be considered.

Taylor Swift's Mercury Sextile Katy Perry's Mercury:

Core Themes: Shared perspectives or styles of problem solving, even communicating, are the hallmark of this aspect. The intent of this energy combination is to facilitate communication, speaking, reasoning and so forth, in order to swiftly and creatively resolve issues, find solutions to problems that arise and create original ideas.

There are many different ways to communicate and the two of you seem to be on the same wavelength most of the time. In other words, your business partner or associate understands and responds well to your style and method of reasoning, thinking and expressing your thoughts and ideas. You usually have the benefit of making yourselves understood the first time, without rehashing and reiterating endlessly. Of course, you won't agree on everything all of the time, but coming to agreement on issues important to you or perceiving what the other wants to communicate will be easier. Your styles of intelligence are also similar and your preferences for mental stimulation could be the same. Teamwork is favored because when you put your heads together, you're more likely to arrive at a creative solution you can both live with than either of you could accomplish separately.

Chapter 3

Fulfilling Each Other's Relationship Needs

These aspects explain how you meet each other's needs in important business or friendship partnerships. These aspects are based on what your natal chart describes that you're looking for in any major one-on-one relationship interaction.

Katy Perry's Sun Trine Taylor Swift's 7th house ruler, Moon:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to teach you to take turns being the dominant person in the relationship and to share the responsibilities not only of power but also of expressing your feelings and caring for each other.

Responsiveness or lack of it will be at the root of issues that arise between you. Be alert to each other's sensitivities, because that will be crucial to the success of your business activities. Family responsibilities can interfere with plans for your business relationship. Take the high road and be a compassionate problem solver as often as you can. You must guard against trying to control each other or one person seeking to be too dominant. An inflated ego could also create problems between you. Be aware of having too many preconceived notions as to how your associate should act in certain situations and discuss expectations. The sooner you have conversations about defining the roles you will and will not play, the better it is for your relationship. Daily patterns and habits and how they mesh or how you work them out will either create a seamless functioning or else spawn discord.

Katy Perry's Jupiter Opp Taylor Swift's 7th house ruler, Moon:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to encourage you to take greater risks for your personal growth and to experience the bounty of life. But mix these adventures with some practical wisdom and an everyday stability.

Your generous spirit can be infectious, inspiring and rejuvenating, especially to those who feel despondent or discouraged. The negative side of this aspect means that you can be too positive in the moment with a tendency to overlook the consequences of your words and actions and inadvertently set yourself and others up for disappointment. Overspending, for instance, could be problematic, as could overeating or even making mountains out of molehills. Your generosity, as well as your spending, can be excessive. Be sure to minimize exaggeration so that you remain believable to your clients and associates and to each other. Be aware that you can create disaster from excessive enthusiasm by ignoring important facts about your associations, affiliations or resources. Take the necessary time to gather the facts before making important decisions. This patterns comes with the classic warning, "sleep on it," before you make the final decision. Whatever you do, don't bet the farm.

Katy Perry's Neptune Opp Taylor Swift's 7th house ruler, Moon:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to increase your awareness of divine, magical or inspirational influences all around you and to have compassion for your own or other's humanity.

This is a magical, inspiring but tricky combination. More than anything, it will make you painfully aware of your blind spots. In your business dealings, resist situations that seem too good to be true, because more than likely they will be. There is a tendency to be fooled, deceived or deluded. To avoid this, ask plenty of questions and do your homework. More than other aspects, this one asks you to heed the saying, "Let the buyer beware". In your work together, make sure that your dealings are aboveboard and that you keep good records for taxes and other legal purposes. Make certain you have your feet firmly planted on the ground and that you are able to maintain the basic structures and necessities of your life if you pursue idealistic goals. This aspect is idealistic and wants to believe in the goodwill of humanity but as the saying goes, "trust but tie up your horse". Another way to have this energy work in your favor is to give a portion of your income to charity, because this aspect teaches how interconnected all of humanity is. Sensitivity to stress is another issue, so take regular time off and come back recharged and refreshed. One of the main pitfalls of this aspect is being too naïve about the world in which you work and letting yourself be taken advantage of.

Katy Perry's Pluto Trine Taylor Swift's 7th house ruler, Moon:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to use personal power in the most positive ways possible and to be receptive to necessary change and transformation. This combination wants to form deep bonds and alliances to effect permanent and important change personally or in the world.

Both of you will be transformed in some important way as a result of your relationship and the business activities you pursue in tandem. This aspect wants to effect big changes and when the energy is focused, it can achieve just that. Your intensity and desire for change must be tempered so that growth can take place at a reasonable pace. There's the temptation to force situations or people to respond in ways that you would like. Excess force will breed resistance. Don't expect your business partner to be as driven as you are and make up for your unfulfilled past desires or needs. Demanding too much or high intensity will cause your colleague to create distance and space apart from you. Step back when the pace gets too extreme and seek a balance of space and empowerment and your satisfaction will be more authentic without the unnecessary pressure. With the right intentions and the dedicated qualities described, your business can achieve a powerful position in the community. Using your instinct will help develop your political savvy.

Katy Perry's Asc. Trine Taylor Swift's 7th house ruler, Moon:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to create awareness of your emotional responses and the effect you have on the emotions of others. Conversely, the moods of others can unnecessarily affect your disposition.

You will find that you share not only similar attitudes but also similar ways of approaching connections with others. One of you may be more sensitive than the other and one of you is a great public ambassador. Forcing yourselves to maintain a certain schedule of activities could be a mistake. Allow yourselves leeway at least part of the time and let your emotional intelligence lead you in the right direction. You could be pleasantly surprised at how satisfying this approach can be. There is an instant responsiveness between you that can mean oversensitivity at times. You will have to negotiate these emotional waters. Establishing trust and reassuring each other of your business goals and intentions will alleviate some emotional sensitivity and turbulence. Doing all you can to secure financial stability in your business dealings will help the naturally occurring anxiety and worry.

Taylor Swift's Mercury Conj Katy Perry's 7th house ruler, Mars:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to allow for direct communication but without unnecessary impatience, anger or sarcasm. This aspect is spirited and willing to stand up for principles with courage and conviction.

With this aspect, your business relationship is characterized by active, energetic and to-the-point communication. Manipulating words, advertising copy or brainstorming for presentations or new business developments represents the edge you have together. Generating words and ideas quickly with a fresh perspective is a boon to any business project you are involved in. You will tend to be direct with each other and not beat around the bush to make your case. This can be positive or it can be upsetting. There is a tendency with this aspect to spontaneously speak your mind spontaneously without necessarily thinking about the effect your words will have on your colleague. Too many thoughtless comments can have a deleterious effect on the harmony of your business association. Take the time to consider your words before you speak and evaluate the consequences of your speech on your partner and your relationship. Is your comment really worth it?

Taylor Swift's Saturn Conj Katy Perry's 7th house ruler, Mars:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to help you define the goals and actions that are most important for you to pursue. This aspect teaches you to organize and structure your time and bring disciplined or focused energy to bear.

When you first meet, you will notice the sense of credibility and competence you feel from each other, and it is these qualities that will encourage a stronger association. However, in time, you could just as easily sense that your partner is competing with you or possibly wanting to control the action. Whatever the case, you will feel that there is something important happening between you. Discovering exactly what that is will preoccupy your attention and keep you in relationship to each other in some way. This aspect challenges both of you to define your bottom line and determine when to stand firm and when to yield to appropriate pressure. You can expect some obstacles to be negotiated and overcome. Making a commitment to a course of action and accepting the consequences of your decisions are other lessons that this combination teaches. Once the two of you are in agreement, building the foundation of any project or pursuing any endeavor will bring out your strength, determination and desire for a long-term association or business partnership.

Taylor Swift's Neptune Conj Katy Perry's 7th house ruler, Mars:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to help you separate true intuition from avoidance or from the blind spots you harbor as you go about your life tasks and experiences. Sensitivity and compassion and how you use or apply them are another theme of this aspect.

You can support each other's dreams and goals with inspiration and by expressing your belief and trust in the project's worthiness or by pointing out obvious flaws and offering a solution. It's also possible that you stimulate each other's weak spots. Because of this, it will be your responsibility not to take unfair advantage but instead inspire your business associate as often as you can. Sensitivity to each other's feelings of insecurity or performance anxieties will do much to control the expression of these feelings. Finding the best way to structure a project for each person's comfort zone will also alleviate many problems. Attempting to fit a square peg into a round hole never works, and this has to be acknowledged. Of course, you can't tolerate sloppiness or shoddy work, but appreciation and understanding will alleviate some of the surface symptoms of insecurity. Being clear about each of your roles and leaving nothing to the imagination or in a state of unclarity will alleviate confusion and misunderstanding.

Taylor Swift's Pluto Sextile Katy Perry's 7th house ruler, Mars:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to bring you in touch with your deeper feelings, instincts and desires and then to channel your powerful energies into productive accomplishments.

You'll feel the potential strength of your partner or business associate at the first meeting. It will be obvious that this person has clear goals and is capable of investing his or her full resources and aims to fulfill them. If this energy is focused, big things can happen. Because this combination carries a great deal of intensity, it will be necessary to channel it productively. The tendency to get completely involved in the project at hand means that control issues and even jealousy can arise. Some of these feelings are normal because of the investment of personal energy that is applied but never to the extent of inappropriate behavior or excessive anger. The best use of this energy is to put it to work transforming situations in your business or community where focus and determination are needed to move a project off dead center and change it into a progressive, self-sustaining entity. If you team up, you'll find that people respond to your potency and strength and will want to lean on you or gravitate to the resources you create. Use this strong energy to heal and renew yourselves and others. Be aware there are high stakes and that this is a boom or bust combination.

Taylor Swift's Asc. Conj Katy Perry's 7th house ruler, Mars:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to motivate you to set goals and to take real steps toward achieving them by expressing who you are and what you want and by connecting with others in an open and confident way.

You'll motivate each other toward the pursuit of goals and be ready to act right away. Be aware that the energy between you is fast and means that you say or do things without always thinking of the effect upon your business partner and your relationship. Too much thoughtlessness or selfishness will damage your long-term relationship. In your business circle or group, the two of you are likely to be among the movers and the shakers, encouraging others to take part in whatever activity or project needs to happen. Being together will stimulate each of you to assert who you are and express yourselves more fully than you have done previously. There's a bit of competitiveness that is just enough to keep you both on alert. Impatience can be an issue, so just make sure that you have enough projects to keep you both busy and out of trouble.

Chapter 4

Your Closest Contacts, Your Strongest Themes

This section interprets the closest connections between your charts. The wisdom of this section says that the closest aspects explain the major or central themes of your relationship and the reason you have come together. The nature of these aspects will also define the main activities, interests and patterns that affect your relationship life together.

Notice that, in this section, each paragraph contains both the easier expression of energies and the more challenging ones. Both interpretations are included because these close connections pertain to the central learning curve of your relationship. Based on the premise that the more exact the connection (also the closest energetic contact) between your pair of planets, the more psychologically significant the aspect will be for each of you. This means that you are likely to be strongly influenced by each other in the areas described. Because of this, it will be useful to consider both the easier and more challenging interpretations even though you lead with one of them. You will, from time to time and in various circumstances, probably exhibit some elements of each interpretation, both the easier expressions as well as the more challenging ones. Another thing - it's possible with both types of aspects that you will have the same challenges but simply respond or react to them in different ways. The goal is to rise to the best possible expression of each combination. This is the learning curve and this bestows the necessary wisdom to develop your relationship.

Katy Perry's Sun Conj Taylor Swift's MC:

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme concerns the quality and success of home, family and career matters. Where you are headed and what your priorities are will be recurring questions.

Challenging aspects: There may be power or ego issues between you when it comes to your work together. Each of you needs to be recognized for the individual contributions you make. It's possible that you could be working at cross-purposes to the aims of the project either deliberately or inadvertently. If you take time on a regular basis to process the issues involved in your mutual projects and any concerns that arise in the course of your work, you'll be better able to nip a serious problem in the bud. Do not let false pride or hurt feelings take over the natural enjoyment you get from working as a team or in a partnership. Spend some time beyond work socializing and getting to know each other in your out-of-work personalities.

Easier aspects: Making compromises and balancing career and family interests will be easier for you to handle. One or both of you will be established and respected in your chosen field or well on the way to making a mark. Supporting each other and loyalty toward each other's goals and projects come naturally in your business partnership. Since you prefer order and are cognizant of the value of time and effort, efficiency is likely to be a supported value. As a team, you are adept at gaining recognition for your product or achievements and being applauded for your mastery. You will be successful in the marketplace.

Taylor Swift's Venus Conj Katy Perry's 4th house cusp:

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme is using your negotiation and cooperative skills in business or domestic situations and community affairs.

Challenging aspects: Awareness is at a high level with regard to all your important life relationships. You may feel conflict between your personal relationship needs and the demands of your career. Finding a balance between your job commitments and your family relationships is always somewhat of a struggle for you, but attempting to resolve the imbalance is worthwhile and vital to your well being. Your social activities can either alleviate the imbalance or bring some needed relief and relaxation. Do not be needlessly concerned or compare yourselves to what others have or what they do. Living within the means of your business budget is admirable in itself.

Easier aspects: Your ability to engage socially is your strongest talent. You know how to make others feel at ease, supported and cared for. People will want to work for you, because not only are you fair but you provide a pleasant work environment. Others notice and admire your standard business commitment to fair commerce and cooperative relationships. It's possible you win recognition for your excellent business practices. Showing appreciation to your employees or business associates is another natural behavioral gift that you've developed. Your social connections are many, and it's likely that you love the arts, music and good food and occasionally weave these activities into your business environment.

Taylor Swift's Venus Square Katy Perry's Pluto (challenging aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme is to embrace empowerment and share power and resources with others for the common good.

Challenging aspects: Your powerful urges and desires will sometimes lead to possessiveness, jealousies and desire to control others. The lesson to be learned from this aspect is that holding on too tightly will cause you to lose what you want most. Learn to relax your grip and trust that what is meant to stay in your life will -- there's no need to force it. Issues of scarce resources or feelings of not enough can create financial problems, resentment or anger. Keep a close watch on your business resources and how they are being managed. If your business gets into trouble, immediately hire professional help to sort things out. There is a tendency to get in over your head, but, by monitoring your business systems, you can avoid extreme manifestations. Do not allow yourself be get involved in illegal activities or financial scams. Stay within the law and find ways to promote your brand of product or service in the marketplace. There's great power and great potential in this aspect, in how you choose to use it. Your motives will tell the tale of your success or failure.

Easier aspects: You will develop a strong and deep bond with each other that is ultimately personally and professionally transforming. When your motives and intentions are blended, you can accomplish great feats by harnessing your focus to the strength of your desire. Others will notice your commitment and feel your magnetism. You can create a large impact for good in your business and community and encourage others to express their full potential by your example. Your accuracy in character assessment will save you from bad choices and allow you to align with others who share your values and purpose. Your ability to leverage your resources and talents and use this leverage for progress and positive political transformation of systems is vast. At the same time, abusing for personal gain your effectiveness, and your innate ability to persuade others, can be a temptation that must be avoided. Unnecessarily pressuring or manipulating others will always backfire in the end.

Katy Perry's Jupiter Conj Taylor Swift's Asc.:

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme is optimism, enthusiasm, faith, positive energy and continually learning and expanding your life experience. You expect to achieve your goals and you will take risks for them.

Challenging aspects: Although you approach life with goodwill and enthusiasm, sometimes you push your luck just a bit too far. In your business relationships, you can make too many promises that you don't keep and create disappointment and feelings of unreliability in your wake. Learning to walk your talk is one of the lessons of this aspect. Overdoing, overextending or misjudging can create problems for you. Shooting from the hip won't work for you either. Before you commit yourselves, be sure to think things through and consider the consequences for your business partnership. Somehow, you manage to retain the goodwill of friends most of the time but don't take excessive advantage of this good will. If you want true success in business, you will clean up your act and choose wisdom not expediency as your primary mode.

Easier aspects: You will encourage and support each other in your most ambitious endeavors. There is a willingness to take risks in this combination or at the very least to recognize an opportunity and take advantage of it. Your biggest advantages come about in your fortunate people connections. Protect your alliances, associations and friendships -- they are as valuable or more so than money in the bank. It is your positive energy and natural generosity of spirit that attracts others. Because your love of learning and renaissance personality has gained you skills, you could participate in team teaching or team leading. Others want to open doors for you. Your business partnership is filled with zest and a desire to take advantage of life's many unique opportunities. Traveling can be among the activities you value.

Katy Perry's Pluto Conj Taylor Swift's MC:

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship themes are ones of understanding and expressing your power and potential fully and creating advantages and resources for others in the process.

Challenging aspects: You are drawn to and even magnetized by each other. Perhaps you're intrigued or you may feel competition. In that case, you may want to draw this person closer, so as to understand his or her motives and agenda. There's no doubt you will engender strong feelings in each other. If you're not careful, you can overreact and express such negative emotions as jealousy, anger, possessiveness or attempting to control your partner. Make no mistake, everyone has these feelings, but, if they take over your relationship and are excessive or bring injury, then you've stepped over the bounds. There is great energy between you and you have the potential to be quite successful. Make sure, however, that your big plans are legal and ethical and, if you put up big stakes, that you've researched the risk and that the expenditures are worth it. Stay away from get-rich-quick schemes. Do your homework instead.

Easier aspects: You probably felt a strong connection with your partner when you first met. Your interest was piqued and you wanted to know, what makes this person tick? Your business partner or colleague could aspire to become or could be a powerful person possessing a great deal of personal magnetism. As potential business partners, your work in the world will develop and grow faster together than for either of you alone, as you pool your resources. You could easily develop businesses together or otherwise collaborate on projects. There is an insistence in your energies that wants to transform outworn systems and breathe new life into them. Being certain of what you want and staying focused are your strongest talents. You are better off being in charge of large chunks of any projects because you don't like taking orders. All that aside, you will always find ways to renew your own personal relationship bond. And as you process inevitable struggles and overcome obstacles, your bond will become stronger and stronger.

Katy Perry's Sun Square Taylor Swift's Venus (challenging aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact contact between your charts, you will be concerned with the quality of your relationship and the balance or harmony within it. Maintaining and building your relationship and those that arise as a result of your partnership will also be important to you. How to resolve conflict through cooperation and negotiation is a core principle of this combination.

Challenging aspects: Although you do appreciate and genuinely like each other, there will be times that you act in ways that seem to be unkind, inconsiderate, or lack caring. At those times, you can also appear to be taking your partner for granted, and this is not good for your business relationship. No relationship can survive without sufficient praise and acknowledgement. Self-indulgence or a lax fiscal policy can be issues you need to deal with. Compromising too much to satisfy your partner and thus losing self-esteem can be another sore point.

Easier aspects: Together, you have naturally cooperative and partnering tendencies. In fact, you prefer to work as a team, to give and receive mutual support. It seems easy for you to practice consideration and fairness in your dealings with your business partner and with others associated with your work. The need and desire for harmony and balance can pervade other aspects of your business life, such as the environment you work in. Even your work itself may be associated with beauty and smoothing out relationship conflicts and tensions through negotiation and cooperation.

Katy Perry's Mercury Sextile Taylor Swift's Neptune (easier aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship themes concern imagination, compassion, understanding, faith and inspiration. The arts and music in some form will be mainstays in your lives.

Easier aspects: The mutual energy you generate is multi-dimensional, meaning that it operates in channels that may not be logical at all times. Intuition, instinct and serendipity play a big role in how you communicate your business message. There is naturalness, kindness and caring in the way you treat others and means you're probably willing to give others the benefit of the doubt more often than not. Your capacity to forgive and make allowances for the foibles and failings of others makes you popular and well-liked. Being of service or providing a service of caring or inspiration is probably a strong part of your business profile. Weaving music or art into your business venue is an additional plus for you. The tendency to inspire others by the way you conduct yourselves in business is an asset that also allows you to maneuver in a variety of business environments.

Challenging aspects: There is a deep connection between you, and your ability to communicate on subliminal levels is strong. Oftentimes you won't even need to speak. Always be honest with each other in order to maintain the bond of trust between you. Don't allow yourselves to be victims of manipulation or seek to manipulate situations and others. Use your persuasive and research abilities to uncover hidden information but avoid falling prey to suspicion or controlling impulses. Balance your energies with physical exercise. The tendency to hold resentments is strong so be sure to work through any feelings that you have been violated or mistreated by getting the issues out in the open. A naïve understanding of the political landscape of your business can hurt you. Think before you make a strategic move to be sure you've addressed all the important consequences. Nurture your alliances and do not betray the trust others give you.

Katy Perry's Moon Conj Taylor Swift's Pluto:

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship themes concern managing the deep feelings you arouse in each other and your investments of emotion, energy and money. Learning to channel positively, the powerful emotions generated by your partnership is your next challenge.

Challenging aspects: You feel the possibilities to do great things in your business partnership but this will take concern and care. Some power struggles need to be worked through in your partnership and even some psychological demons, often originating from past experiences. Curbing reactivity and projection will be challenging but necessary and learned through trial and error. Because your feelings are so intense, fear of loss (of your interests, investment, position in the company, etc.) can be aroused, which in turn can give rise to jealousy, control or possessiveness. These emotional responses will not get you what you want. If you can't resolve your conflicts, seek professional help. The psychological, financial or power struggles you generate together could be too strong for the two of you to handle. The best thing is to let the process evolve with as much understanding that you can muster. There will be aspects to your relating that will be a mystery and may be beyond your present understanding.

Easier aspects: The changes you evoke in each other and through mutual projects will be long lasting and have a powerful effect. Your bond is strong and focused, and if properly channeled can transform anything you train your attention on. The power generated by this aspect cannot be contained by your relationship alone. You will find yourselves involved in organizations where powerfully committed people like yourselves gather to make things happen. Being analytically inclined and highly perceptive, you can be problem solvers or a healing force in business or in your community. Beyond that, you are survivors and can regenerate in spite of any difficulties you may encounter. Once you settle your power struggles with each other, you will have much to offer the world and your community. Be aware that financial issues or other situations involving your joint resources, including your personal energy expenditures, are central to your partnership and must be managed with care.

Katy Perry's Mars Conj Taylor Swift's Saturn:

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship themes are commitment, protection, mastery and integrity and pursuing your goals with determination and persistence.

Challenging aspects: There's a seriousness with which you approach life and your business together. At times this seriousness can mean you are too negative in your viewpoint. Be aware of that tendency and seek professional help to bring balance to your attitude. Still, you are likely to face obstacles and challenges together that, at times, will test your commitment and strength. But you do have the endurance to overcome tough times. Maintain your integrity and, with persistence and determination, you will achieve your goals. Resistance and defensiveness are habits you do not want to indulge. Allow external challenges to develop your inner, unshakeable strength. As much as possible, adhere to proven business practices, such as contracts and other protective measures to secure assets and resources. Although you may have your sights set on something specific, circumstantial realities may prevent you from achieving in some areas. If this is the case, cut your losses and move on to the next project.

Easier aspects: In business you will not leave things to chance, because your energies require planning, organizing and preparation. You prefer to err on the side of caution and are generally not impetuous or prone to rushing into situations. In addition, you will quickly want to know where you stand in your business relationships and partnerships. Making a commitment and having business contracts is the preferred and sensible way for you to be in partnership with each other. Each of you must feel secure and protected in any business contracts you sign and in the way you delegate how the work is to be divided. Precision and excellence will distinguish the work you undertake as business partners. You are of the opinion that if it is worth doing at all, it is worth doing well. Reaching for excellence encourages others and sets an example. Others will admire and emulate, if not your achievements, then certainly your style.
