***** Chapter 1 *******

Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Leo

You were born under the sign of LEO and your ruling planet is the Sun, which endows you with great personal pride, authority and vitality.

Your Sun sign is FIXED and this impels you to fulfill an organizing function, either in thought or action. Your attitude is firm, persistent, stable and decisive. You have the ability to concentrate profoundly on your projects and to stay firm in your purposes. You enjoy organizing enterprises and directing others. In spite of this, you will have to cultivate a certain flexibility to avoid obstinacy and selfishness.

Leo is a FIRE sign and this will make you enthusiastic, ardent, proud and spontaneous; a pioneer undertaking enterprises with certain risks and seeking recognition from others. You have a strong will and great ambitions and are never satisfied with less. The fire element impels you to fight determinedly for your ideal, which sometimes may cause you to become aggressive, nervous or a tyrant.

You are very noble and will always act with integrity and honesty. You exhibit great personal assurance and ability to project, which will make you a leader in any area. You are very idealistic and also will defend another's honor or anyone who suffers some injustice. You live your life with great intensity and may be dramatic in expressing your emotions. You always want to be the center of attention and get bored when you are alone or withdraw.

You are very creative and always give your personal touch to anything you do. You are likely to stand out in any social or artistic activity. You like to share your achievements and your generosity is limitless, especially with those you admire or love. Others will seek you out because of your great sense of humor, the strength you convey and your personal ability, although this could also make you the target of criticism and envy.

You were born to occupy influential and important positions in life. Your words, your image and your ideas will be convincing and will serve as a guide for a lot of people. You were born to direct, to command, to lead, to impose justice, to create, to express and to communicate. One of your missions in life is to teach others to work for their own ambitions and happiness. Your personal pride will teach others that real love starts within oneself; your positive attitude, optimism and happiness will indicate your way of achieving your goals.

To evolve, your spirit needs to learn to control your pretensions, selfishness, excessive seductiveness, manipulateness, and the tendency to exaggerate and to create dramas when they do not exist. You will have to find a way not to depend so much on the approval of others and to conquer the fear of ridicule. It is important to avoid having arrogant attitudes, feeling slighted or being authoritative, and you also will have to control your inclination toward luxuries and showing off.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Scorpio

Others see you as a dynamic, authoritative and tenacious person. You are strong and confident in your objectives and are persevering and intense in everything you propose to do.

You express your opinions very honestly and sometimes your direct statements tend to irritate others. You are not one to hide your feelings and are very selective with whom you associate. You give yourself completely to those you like and require sincerity and genuineness of them. You are faithful and stable in your affections and don't tolerate or forgive lies or deceptions. Your powerful intuition will allow you to discover all that is hidden from you. You are strongly attracted to occult sciences and mysteries in general and are likely to develop a strong potential for extrasensory perception. Because of your personal magnetism, you tend to attract everyone's attention without any effort on your part.

The profession you choose will have to permit you to develop your ability to investigate, your attraction to investigations, to find a balance between your emotions and your reason. Throughout your professional life you probably will experience times of contrast, great success and many limitations. Avoid jobs where the human element is not important.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Sagittarius

Your emotions are fiery, intense and changing. You can't tolerate boring, very passive or monotonous activities; you love conquest. Throughout your life you will be drawn to more than one situation or difficult or impossible goals to accomplish. You despair when you are unable to get what you hope for, however, when you obtain it, you may tire of it or lose interest.

You are very curious and strongly attracted to novel situations, conquest or adventure. You are a bit immature and naive and generously share everything you have. You express your ideas freely and often neglect others' sensibility, which may cause you to say things in the wrong place or to the wrong people. Your anecdotes in this regard will be frequent. You like to meet people of different culture and ethnic origin. You love to travel, especially to strange and remote places. You feel the need to expand your horizons and dream of an accomplished future. On the negative side, you tend to procrastinate or have a lack of commitment.

Subconsciously, you have a strong desire to expand and to exceed your current limits. In previous lives you may have done a lot of traveling to distant lands in order to study, preach or teach philosophy, law or religion. Because of this, you are not used to staying in one relationship or in a particular place. You long to be with people you may have known sometime ago, far away from your home. It is easy for you to learn languages and you are not afraid of the unknown. You may have suffered certain injustices or may have been a witness to them. Therefore, today you have a strong feeling for the law and are protective of people in inferior situations. In this incarnation you have the need to share all your knowledge and wisdom, and seek to overcome the feeling of loneliness or isolation that you have suffered in the past.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to know, to learn, to teach, to expand your consciousness and your mental as well as your material limits. You need to express your enthusiasm, joy of living and confidence in yourself. You have to avoid dogmatism, exaggeration or self-indulgence.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Cancer

Your mind is controlled by your feelings and you may find it very difficult to be truly objective. Your thoughts are compassionate and you are strongly attached to your family. You have a good memory and tend to cling to everything you have learned during your childhood. You have a very sensitive, receptive and intuitive mind, which enables you to maintain telepathic communications with your loved ones. You always know what is happening, even though you may be far away. You also have great imagination, and fantasies and romantic daydreams may keep you from concentrating on your studies. You show ability in and a taste for poetry and music.

You probably are a bit shy in your way of communicating and prefer to hide your emotions. Your emotional and intuitive mind will enable you to work in fields of medicine, psychology, nurturing or teaching, but you may require support to achieve your educational goals. You have to learn to be more disciplined and constant. You also may like to collect things.

***** Chapter 2 *****

Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.
Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 9th house:

Your success is related to long trips, the study of other cultures, languages, philosophy, law and religion. You are anxious to learn and this will cause you to study as well as travel world wide. You are likely to reach material success in a different country from where you were born. If not, you definitely will settle in another place, tend to make many trips and will be in touch with people abroad. Perhaps your father or other family member came from another country.

On the other hand, you have a great sense of justice and if you study the law, would make a very good professional. You also would be very successfully in any educational pursuit. You like to investigate and learn about nature as well as abstract ideas. Your religious feeling will be intense and you are very devoted to your beliefs.

Sun Conjunct Pluto:

You usually are in control of every situation because of your firm and honest opinions. You like to have control and tend to manipulate others to achieve your objectives. You have to learn to avoid selfishness, intolerance and inflexibility, otherwise you could become tyrannical and authoritarian with others. Throughout your life you may experience deep and total changes that will put your capabilities and strength to test.

Sun Trine Mars:

Because you have the necessary strength to overcome any obstacle, you are attracted to enterprises that carry certain risks or those demanding quick and incisive decisions. You are very positive, open and direct with your opinions and will provide assistance to those who need it. You are likely to be a source of support for many people around you.

Sun Sextile Jupiter:

You have an optimistic attitude that will allow you to achieve your objectives without much effort. You radiate happiness and enthusiasm, which will increase your popularity and the possibility of receiving favors from those who like you. You are inclined to be a bit lazy and are fond of comfort. Your optimism could cause you to take everything too lightly and to neglect the details. Regardless, a touch of luck will always be with you and help you to leap forward.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 2nd house:

You have a good business sense and could do well in business contacts with the public or women. You will have to let your own intuition guide you. There could be many changes in your financial standing. Because of this, it is necessary that you learn to save and to manage your earnings well. You can be extremely generous or very stingy, and you must try to avoid these extremes. Money and material possessions are important to your emotional security.

Moon Square Neptune:

You are very receptive to everything that happens around you and could easily assimilate negative energy when you are confronted with stressful situations. You tend to be fearful and try to escape situations that frighten you. If you don't acknowledge your own fears, you could be inclined to some type of vice or to work excessively.

You are very inspirational and have a natural ability for music. You also may be interested in mysterious and spiritual subjects.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Libra on 12th house cusp

You completely neglect your artistic abilities and tend to lack diplomacy. You have to learn to develop more patience with others and to show your good side. You probably are very rigid and seldom demonstrate your affections.

This influence could bring karmic unions or associations that can be complex and unavoidable. Try to be coherent and rational in your selection when taking on a commercial associate to avoid deceptions or losses in the future. You also could encounter legal problems due to administrative confusion.

***** Chapter 3 *****

Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn).
To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Gemini

Your sense of expansion manifests through your intellectual capacity. You are very intelligent and noted for your mental powers. You have a need to study, to read, to inform yourself and to exchange opinions and ideas with others. Knowing more about the topics you are involved with makes you feel more confident and powerful; your growth in life is based on that. On the other hand, you have to learn to combine your great ability to reason with your feelings, because under this astrological influence the mind is more developed at the expense of the emotions.

Jupiter in 8th house:

You are well qualified to handle money for others or yourself. You could excel in business management, accounting or banking. You may receive money or possessions through marriage, inheritances or gifts that will expand your material situation. Your material expansion is related to your ability to organize or transform your life as well as that of others.

Jupiter Square Venus:

You can be conceited and contented, and due to the over-protection you may have received, you could become negligent and scattered. You tend to exaggerate and your financial sense is not well developed. Overly optimistic, you are a bit unrealistic and therefore prone to situations that you are unable to handle. It would have been better if your parents had not been so complacent and taught you to earn things by yourself.

Jupiter Sextile Sun:

You have a very positive view about life and the abundance of the universe. You believe in your own prosperity and are generous with others. Your positive, happy, and optimistic attitude will help you to expand your enterprises, to improve your income and to enjoy what you do.

Jupiter Sextile Mars:

Thanks to your broad viewpoint you make a good leader. You are loyal, proud, liberal and self-confident. You are very protective of your friends and family and have a sound sense of justice. You are probably interested in sports, politics and travel. You are likely to have a steady income throughout your life and always live comfortably. Because you are secure in your own beliefs, you are a true idealist.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Taurus

The inhibition principle affects your own personal evaluation. You have a strong need for financial and emotional security, which makes you a bit apprehensive or rigid when facing new things. You probably are not very comfortable having total freedom to do what you want. It is important that you have the help and collaboration of others, and that you avoid thinking that one must work hard to earn what one wants, because this alone can frighten you more. You can develop an incredible resistance to adversities in difficult times.

Saturn in 7th house:

You can perform better working with others than alone, however, your principal frustration will be the difficulty in finding a perfect associate. This placement hinders, delays or frustrates any kind of association and could bring losses. You have to learn to rely on your own authority and to work independently; if you find an associate, try to become aware with whom you are dealing. Subconsciously, you recall a paternal figure and seek the protection from older people, and this could make you rely more on them than you need to. You are responsible and may direct your desire to achieve into areas involving the public. You transmit an image of confidence and maturity to others.

Saturn Conjunct Uranus:

You have a very strong creative force, which at the same time tends to inhibit you, or you may not rely on your own ideas. You are self-willed and hardworking, but always want your way. You could have conflicts with traditional teaching. In spite of accepting great responsibility, you are likely to make abrupt and sudden decisions that will bring a great change in your daily routine. This could lead you to leave your job impulsively sometime in the future. You will have to learn to release your inner tension constructively.

Saturn Trine Neptune:

You tend to have a strong and positive sense of ethics and morals. Because your sense of self-preservation is strong, you always protect your own interests. Your imagination and inspiration will be expressed in an organized, methodical and practical way. You have a strong feeling of reality and your philosophy of life is based on discipline. You are likely to develop strong spiritual and religious principles throughout your life.

Saturn Sextile Mercury:

You are practical, logical and realistic. Because of your disciplined mind, you are able to concentrate easily. You are also very careful in voicing your opinions. You could have trouble concentrating on artistic or abstract topics and always prefer to use logic, coherence and intelligence.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

***** Chapter 4 *******

Finances, source of income.

Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Sagittarius on 2nd house cusp

Throughout your life your financial possibilities are likely to expand considerably. You can earn money through independent activities or those related to education, law, philosophy, foreign trade, import and export, and also by utilizing your natural intuition or foresight.

Your financial success could come in another country or in a different place from that of your birth. In general, you tend to have financial good luck in anything you undertake.

Moon in 2nd house:

Your finances are directly related to the public, the world of women, or to services related to diet, emotions, or entertainment. You can earn a lot of money if your work is related to those fields, but you will have to learn to organize, since your income will be fluctuating.

Ruler of 2nd house in 8th house:

Your income is related to the administration of other people's resources, joint investments, banking, brokerage, insurance, or politics. There is a possibility of receiving an inheritance. This position also favors profit by marriage.

Earning money is in direct relationship to our self-esteem. If we consider ourselves valuable, money flows and comes into our lives. Work done with love and pleasure doesn't weigh us down and offers a better profit.

WORK IN RELATION TO YOUR EMPLOYMENT: Aries on 6th house cusp

Your work in relationship to your employment will be expressed through your ability for leadership or organization. You are tenacious, ambitious, aggressive and authoritative. You need to feel free and to have power of decision to work more comfortably. Under this influence you are likely to impose your opinions on your co-workers, which may not always be well received and could bring disagreements or fights. As boss you could become a tyrant or very demanding. You would do better when you are self-employed since you resent authority and dislike interference.

***** Chapter 5 *******

Your creativity and recreational activities.
Other skills and hobbies.

Hobbies are also part of our personality and through them, we express to a great extent our creative ability. It is important to enjoy our leisure activities and to complement them with our work or profession to reach greater balance. In our culture, we tend to place importance only on that which brings us money, thereby neglecting the expression of important parts of our personality.

YOUR CREATIVITY: Pisces on 5th house cusp

Your favorite recreational activities will be those that allow you to find peace and harmony of nature. You enjoy being near water and because of this, water sports such as swimming, boating, skiing, diving etc. will be very gratifying for you. In regards to sports, you will favor those that are not competitive or aggressive. You are interested in living things, animals or plants and ecological subjects in general. You need to find harmony and peace in your emotional world. Your creativity will be stimulated by your spirituality and times of solitude; because of this, you have to learn to reflect and to explore your own inner world.

Mars in 5th house:

Some of your pastimes could be: sports in general, gymnastics, mechanics, automobiles, repairing metallic objects, collecting weapons, shooting, taxidermy, camping, rock music etc.

***** Chapter 6 *****

Your vocation, profession, probability of success and social recognition.

Leo-Virgo MC (15 to 30 degrees Leo)

Business affairs will play a role in your destiny. No matter what your career or profession is, you are interested in national and international trading. You are very introverted and reserved about your decisions; you will listen to advice or recommendations from others, but will finally do what was on your mind at the beginning. You will work toward your objectives with much will and tenacity, but could become obsessive, possibly denying other aspects of your life, such as emotional relationships. You may have artistic talents which could be overlooked or neglected in favor of other activities much more likely to be financially rewarding. You have to learn to value every ability, not just those which will give you money. Due to your perseverance and intuition, you are likely to become the owner of a corporation, or will work in high positions.

Your career choice could be one of the following professions, or a combination of some of them: corporate administration, general trading, fashion or furniture designer, economist, advertising draftsman, movie or theater director, college professor, or any other profession which would allow you to combine your creativity with business.

Venus in 10th house:

You are likely to have many ambitions and enjoy social success. Throughout your life you will have many friends and receive help from them. You were born with a deep sense of diplomacy as well as aesthetic taste, and because of this, you could do well in artistic or social fields. You are successful in dealing with the public. This astrological influence indicates enjoyment of your profession and your life in general.

Ruler of 10th house in 9th house:

Your professional success is related to your ideals, university degree, higher studies, religion and traveling. You may establish yourself professionally in a different place from that of your birth or your work could necessitate you to travel often. You always feel the need to expand your knowledge and to make the most of each day.

***** Chapter 7 *****

Summary. Your unique talents.

Each of us is born with a unique talent, and our function in life is to express it. Following are descriptions of the principal astrological influences that form your unique abilities. Although some probable professions are listed, your true vocation is a combination of all these elements. After reading these paragraphs, reflect on them and let your intuition help you to find your own synthesis.

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Leo

You were born to direct, to command, to lead, to impose justice, to create, to express and to communicate. One of your missions in life is to teach others to work for their ambitions and for their own happiness. Your personal pride will teach others that real love starts within oneself; your positive attitude, optimism and happiness will indicate your way of achieving your goals.

Professions ruled by Leo: educator, artist, manager, architect, musician, inventor, sportsman, teacher and all occupations where you could be in a position of authority and power or creative activities related to the education of children.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Scorpio

The profession you choose will have to permit you to develop your ability to investigate, your attraction to investigation, and to find a balance between your emotions and your reason. Avoid projects where the human element is not important.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Sagittarius

Your job will have to satisfy your emotional need to know, to learn, to teach, to expand your consciousness and your mental as well as material limits. You need to express your enthusiasm, joy of living and confidence in yourself.

YOUR VOCATION: Leo-Virgo MC (15 to 30 degrees Leo)

Your career choice could be one of the following professions, or a combination of some of them: corporate administration, general trading, fashion or furniture designer, economist, advertising draftsman, movie or theater director, college professor, psychologist, investigator etc., or any other profession which would allow you to combine your creativity with business. Your perseverance and faith in your goals will carry you on the road to success.
