PREFACE

Major Themes Your Relationship

Composite Sun BiQuintile Venus:

Pleasure and a share of the good life are indicated. How much and how good depends upon your values and levels of self-esteem. The more you're sincere rather than superficial the further you can go.

Composite Moon Sextile Saturn:

There are emotional barriers to contend with. Affinity does not come without effort. It takes time and effort to grow together. This relationship requires caution and care. Meanwhile, you may feel emotionally separate from each other.

Composite Moon Seven Sixteenth Pluto:

You have such a strong effect on each other that you take each other to the depths. This is not necessarily bad. Your feelings for each other run so deep that you can expect an emotional catharsis and perhaps a regeneration or renewal. In plain English, you have one hell of a hold on one another. Whether you hold each other dear or suffocate one another, that is your choice. Possessiveness, dominance and jealousy could be issues. Making self-examination part of your lifestyle would prove to be helpful.

Composite Mercury Opposition Uranus:

You stimulate each other's intellect. You challenge each other's world view. At times you may read each other's minds and finish each other's sentences. You bring out each other's eccentric side. You can be a mentally and technically creative team. You goad each other and could bring out the joker in each other. To make the relationship work, drop all preconceptions.

Composite Venus Trine Mars:

Because of the strong magnetic attraction, it was almost inevitable that the two of you were drawn together. Feelings and expectations run high. Emotions are intense. You arouse each other. You push each other to the breaking point. There is an urgent need for physical expression. It is probably a noisy relationship. Anger or love, the choice is yours.

Composite Venus Semisextile Pluto:

Don't be surprised to find yourselves transformed by the extreme passions, pleasures and experiences you share. This is anything but a casual relationship and cannot be taken lightly. You two will dredge up deep emotions in each other. Power and control could be an issue.

Composite Mars Quincunx Pluto:

This relationship will be marked by powerful transformations and strong physical drives. Be conscious of where you are directing your power together. If you have positive and purposeful objectives, you have great chances to achieve them. There is tremendous creative energy to solve problems. However, without great care and courtesy and consideration, the two of you will most certainly find each other to be vicious, crude and difficult to deal with.

Composite Jupiter Sesquiquadrate Neptune:

You share idealistic sentiments, otherworldly concerns and can develop anything from a fantasy world to a strong spiritual relationship. Whether or not this union produces false security and a fool's paradise or higher states of consciousness and answers to prayers is up to you.

Composite Saturn TriSeptile Neptune:

To the degree that your ideals are compatible, this relationship will succeed. To the degree that they are not, deception, depression and a sense of futility are probable. You cause each other to make subtle changes in your world view. Together you can create and build a new lifestyle. First you must learn how to make each other feel secure. Then you must persevere together toward your ideals. A mature romance is possible.
